Richard L. Monfort

Owner/Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Dick Monfort enters his 22nd season with the Rockies franchise in 2019 and continues in his role as Owner/Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for the club. A Colorado native, Monfort and the Colorado Rockies Ownership Group have established the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club as a leading organization in the Rocky Mountain Region in both sports and business.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family-directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort Family Foundation gifted $10 million to Children's Hospital Colorado for the construction of a new medical facility in Aurora, Colo. The oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

Individually, Monfort was the 2008 recipient of the United Way of Weld County Humanitarian of the Year Award—an award his father, Kenny Monfort, received twenty years earlier. Monfort is currently the Chairman of the University of Northern Colorado Board of Trustees and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of University of Colorado Health.

Monfort spent 25 years in the cattle business, primarily with his family's company. In 1987, he was named president of Monfort of Colorado, Inc., a subsidiary of ConAgra, and in 1991 became president and CEO of ConAgra Red Meats. After retiring from ConAgra in 1995, he helped launch the Montera Cattle Company in 1996.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Monfort has a bachelor's degree in business management. In May 2012, Colorado State University President Tony Frank awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters to Monfort in recognition of his significant contributions to Colorado industry and higher education. Also in May 2014, he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship by Johnson & Wales University.

Monfort has three children: daughter Dr. Lyndsey Grae M.D. and sons Walker and Sterling, who both work with him at the Colorado Rockies. Dick currently resides in Denver with his wife Karen.

Monfort congratulates Rockies employees receiving commendations in an onfield ceremony.

Game in and game out, Monfort is cheering on the home team from his seats.

Charles K. Monfort
Owner/General Partner

Charlie Monfort, Owner/General Partner, is a club founder and has been one of the Rockies' managing general partners since 1992.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family-directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort Family Foundation, gifted $10 million to Children's Hospital Colorado for the construction of a new medical facility in Aurora, Colo. The oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. In addition, the family funded a display of artwork, photography and Rockies memorabilia to enhance the seventh floor of the hospital. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. In 2012, they matched dollar for dollar on fans' collected contributions for Coloradoans devastated by summer wildfires. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

Charlie was named president of Monfort International Sales Corporation in 1988, and under his guidance, it became one of the largest beef exporters in the world and the leading exporter of beef products to Asia. In 1990, Monfort became president of ConAgra Refrigerated Foods International, Inc., which consolidated Monfort International Sales Corporation with all of ConAgra's international refrigerated foods companies. Charlie resigned from ConAgra in late 1997 in order to concentrate on his leadership role with the Rockies.

Monfort has a bachelor's degree in marketing & business management from the University of Utah (1982) and served as president of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He currently serves on the Special Olympics Board of Directors, is a member of the Advisory Board for the University of Utah and is an active supporter of the Denver Dream program.

Monfort continues to make his home in Greeley, Colo., and has four children: son Kenny, daughter Ciara and twins, son Lucas and daughter Danica.

Monfort greets Rockies fans as they enter the ballpark on Opening Day.

Colorado Rockies Officers

Greg Feasel
Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer

Greg Feasel is in his 24th year with the Colorado Rockies and ninth as chief operating officer. In this role, Feasel manages all aspects of the organization's business operations, including all revenue areas, customer service, ticket sales and operations, corporate partnerships, communications, marketing, broadcasting, community affairs, merchandising, promotions, special events, private suites and party facilities, information systems, human resources, ballpark operations and capital improvements.

Feasel joined the Rockies prior to the 1996 season after serving as a division director of sales and marketing for Coca-Cola Enterprises, where he was responsible for all revenue areas and key accounts while overseeing the day-to-day operations of a distribution and sales center. Feasel is also a former educator in Texas and Colorado.

A graduate of Abilene Christian University, Feasel was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. Along with his brother, Grant, he was also selected for the ACU All-Century Team in 2005. Feasel was a professional football player from 1983–87, and his career included time with the Green Bay Packers, San Diego Chargers and the Denver Gold in the United States Football League.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Rockies, Feasel is also active in the community. He currently serves as a board member of the Downtown Denver Partnership/Denver Civic Ventures Board, VISIT DENVER and is executive director of the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation.

Greg and his wife Lynn have one daughter, Zoie.

Hal Roth
Executive Vice President

Hal Roth begins his 27th year with the Colorado Rockies. He is currently an Executive Vice President of the Club and serves as the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Legal Officer of the General Partner, having previously served in the same capacity for the Rockies. He also currently serves as a trustee of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan, as well as a member of the MLB Insurance Committee.

Prior to joining the club, Roth was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand for 19 years, 1975-93, where he specialized in taxation. He holds a bachelor's degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver and an L.L.M (in Taxation) from New York University. Roth is also a certified public accountant (inactive) and a member of the Colorado Bar.

Roth has served on a variety of charitable boards, including the Colorado Council on Economic Education, Colorado Children's Chorale, the Colorado Neurological Institute and Seniors, Inc. He is currently an advisor to DECA, a high school business program, and serves as a Director of COPIC, an insurance company. Roth's hobbies include golf, skiing and hiking in Colorado and Wyoming during the summer. Hal and his wife Connie reside in Englewood and have two sons, Rory (wife Lisa) and Reilly, and one granddaughter, Penelope.

Jeff Bridich
Executive Vice President - General Manager

Jeff Bridich enters his fifth season as the general manager of the Colorado Rockies after being named to the position on Oct. 8, 2014. After four seasons as a senior vice president, he was promoted to executive vice president this past offseason. Last year marked his 14th season in a leadership role within the Rockies' baseball operations department.

Prior to his promotion to GM, he served as the Rockies' senior director of player development from December 2011-October 2014. He joined the Rockies' front office in December 2004 as manager of Minor League operations and held the position of senior director of baseball operations from 2006 to 2011. Bridich came to Colorado after working in the Office of the Commissioner for Major League Baseball from 2001-04. In that role, he worked closely with each Major League team in areas pertaining to Minor League contracts and transactions.

A graduate of Harvard University in 2000, the Milwaukee native played four seasons as a catcher and outfielder for the Crimson, serving as a tri-captain his senior year.

Jeff and his wife Sarah reside in Denver. They have two children.

Jill Campbell
Vice President - Communications & Marketing

Jill Campbell enters her 27th season with the Rockies, fifth as vice president of communications & marketing. Campbell oversees all aspects of the club's public relations and media relations functions, advertising, marketing, publications, photography and social media.

Campbell began her career with the Rockies in the fall of 1992 and has served a variety of business, ticketing, marketing and advertising roles with the organization, including senior director of advertising, marketing, publications and social media prior to her promotion to vice president in November 2014. She has been instrumental in designing and developing the club's print and broadcast advertising campaigns, social media strategies, marketing programs, special events like Rockies Fest and the Caravan, a variety of organizational publications, including the monthly Rockies Magazine, as well as overseeing baseball and business communications/PR functions for the organization.

Born in Santa Clara, Calif., and raised in St. Louis, Mo., Jill earned a bachelor's degree in English at UCLA, while working in entertainment publicity and on staff at UCLA's Daily Bruin newspaper.

Rolando Fernandez
Vice President - International Scouting & Development

Rolando Fernandez begins his 27th season with the Rockies organization and fifth as vice president of international scouting & development. He previously served as the senior director of international scouting. Fernandez oversees all aspects of international scouting, including player signings, scouting, player development and day-to-day operations.

In 2005, Fernandez was honored as the Rockies' Herb Hippauf Scouting Award recipient, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Prior to his current role, he spent four seasons as the roving Latin American coordinator and, in 1999, was named the Rockies' Player Development "Man of the Year."

Prior to heading up the Rockies' international scouting efforts, Fernandez also coached the Rockies' Arizona Rookie League club from 1994-97 and the High-A Visalia affiliate for half of the 1993 season. Before joining the Rockies, the former outfielder played three years in the Chicago Cubs organization. Fernandez was drafted by the Cubs in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft.

A 1990 graduate of Northwestern State University of Louisiana, Fernandez has a bachelor's degree in advertising. Rolando is married to Kim Velazquez and has two daughters, Sofia Camille and Adriana.

Brian Gaffney
Vice President - General Counsel

Brian Gaffney enters his second season with the Colorado Rockies, his first as Vice President - General Counsel. Prior to his promotion to Vice President, Gaffney was the club's general counsel. Gaffney is responsible for all legal aspects and functions of the club, including corporate governance, drafting and negotiating contracts, and managing litigation.

Prior to joining the club, Gaffney was a partner with the law firm of Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. in Denver for over 10 years, where he specialized in corporate mergers and acquisitions, real estate, bankruptcy, restructuring and commercial finance law. He is admitted to practice law in Colorado and Texas (inactive) in a variety of courts, including the Colorado Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the District of Colorado and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. While in private practice, Gaffney was named Colorado Super Lawyers® Rising Star four times (2014-2017). Gaffney is a member of the State Bar of Colorado, the Denver Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Gaffney is a member of the Board of Directors for the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation (Colorado Chapter) and has been involved with a variety of charitable organizations, including the Rocky Mountain Stanford Alumni Association, the Global Down Syndrome's Dare to Play Camp, and the Boys and Girls Club of Denver.

Born and raised in Phoenix, Ariz., Gaffney holds a bachelor's in political science, with honors, from Stanford University (2003), a master's in political sociology from Stanford University (2004), and earned his J.D., with honors, from University of Texas at Austin (2007). Gaffney was also a four-year letterman in football at Stanford University, where he was a linebacker and a member of Stanford's teams that won the 2000 Pac-10 Championship, the 2000 Rose Bowl and the 2001 Seattle Bowls. He was also the Special Teams Player for the Year for Stanford in 2003.

Brian and his wife Abby reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo., and have four children: Molly, Mason, Nolan and Tobin.

Kevin Kahn
Vice President/Chief Customer Officer - Ballpark Operations

Kevin Kahn begins his 26th season with the Rockies and 19th as vice president of ballpark operations. In December 2003, the club named Kahn its first-ever chief customer officer, charging him with the responsibility of overseeing the Coors Field Customer Service Committee, a diverse group of Rockies and partner employees whose sole purpose is to continually strive for and uphold the highest standards of service provided by the Rockies and Coors Field service partners for all of the club's employees, guests and sponsors. Kahn also directs all aspects of ballpark operations, including the club's partnership with the Coors Field food service provider, Aramark. He is a member of Major League Baseball's Security & Facility Management Advisory Committee.

Prior to being named vice president, Kahn was senior director of Coors Field operations from 1997-2000. He was the director of stadium services his first three seasons with the club. Kahn has been involved with professional baseball for 37 years, previously working for the Oakland Athletics from 1981-93. He started as an operations assistant before being named director of stadium operations in 1987. He spent his last seven seasons with the A's in that capacity.

The Oakland, Calif., native graduated from Bishop O'Dowd High School. He went on to receive his bachelor's degree in business administration from California State University-Hayward.

Kevin has two children, Haley and Kyle and resides in Highlands Ranch with his wife Lisa.

Jim Kellogg
Vice President - Community & Retail Operations

Jim Kellogg enters his 14th year as vice president of community and retail operations after being named to the position on Jan. 1, 2006. Overall, 2019 will be his 26th season with the Rockies organization.

Kellogg is responsible for directing the Rockies' retail operations as well as heading the community affairs department. He works directly with players and coaches as the liaison between the organization and the community. His community work is a reflection of the Rockies' contributions to youth education and health. His duties include overseeing the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation, in addition to overseeing the Rockies Dugout Stores, Coors Field retail and club archives.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Kellogg spent eight years with Mercantile Stores. He serves on the board of directors for the Lower Downtown District, Inc., is the current chairman of the Children's Hospital Colorado Foundation's Corporate Leadership Council and sits on the Board of Denver Sports.

A graduate of Denver's J.K. Mullen High School, Kellogg attended Colorado State University and received his bachelor's degree from Regis University in 1987. Jim and his wife Cheli reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo. They have a son Danny (wife Elizabeth) and a daughter Amanda (husband Austin).

Michael Kent

One of the original Rockies officers, Michael Kent joined the organization in January 1992, and enters his 28th year with the club.

Kent is in contact with every department in the organization, assisting them with financial planning and budgeting. He is responsible for financial reporting, cash management, club insurance and benefits. Kent came to Colorado after a decade with the Philadelphia Phillies (1982-91) where he served as controller. Prior to joining the Phillies, he worked in the Long Island, N.Y., office of Deloitte Haskins & Sells, providing accounting services to small and growing businesses.

He attended Villanova University and graduated with a degree in accounting in 1979. Michael and his wife Mary have five children: Jonathan, Laura (husband Branden), Timothy, Bryan and Nicole. The family resides in Highlands Ranch, Colo.

Sue Ann McClaren
Vice President - Ticket Sales, Operations & Services

Sue Ann McClaren joined the Rockies in October of 1992 and was responsible for beginning the ticket sales department for the new expansion team. This included hiring a staff, developing policies and managing the sales of all tickets before the inaugural season. Entering her 27th season with the club and her 42nd year in Major League Baseball, McClaren was named vice president on Dec. 1, 1995, becoming the Rockies' first female officer.

McClaren served as director of ticket sales in 1993, during which the Rockies set Major League records for highest attendance in a single game, night game, three-game series and single season. Colorado led the Majors in attendance for each of its first seven seasons of existence (1993-99) and has drawn more than 71 million since 1993.

Prior to joining Colorado, McClaren worked for 15 years in the sales department with the St. Louis Cardinals, who won three NL pennants and one World Series title during that time. She was director of ticket sales with the Cardinals before joining the expansion Rockies. Sue Ann is a graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, Mo.

Walker Monfort
Vice President - Corporate Partnerships

Walker Monfort enters his 10th year working in a full-time capacity for the Colorado Rockies, and his fifth year as the club's vice president of corporate partnerships.

Monfort is responsible for the oversight and management of the club's revenue generated through sponsorship of the Rockies, including oversight of the club's promotions department, in-game entertainment and RockiesVision production.

Monfort officially joined the Rockies front office on a full-time basis in December 2009, after four years of work in a part-time capacity in several departments across the organization. From 2005-08, Monfort worked summers on the grounds crew, in the visiting clubhouse, in the ticket office and on the gameday promotions team. From 2009-13, Monfort worked in the baseball operations department with a focus on the Rockies' Minor League operations and player development. In 2014, Monfort was appointed director of corporate partnerships, which led to a promotion to vice president of the department. Monfort is also an active board member on the Executive Committee of ACE Scholarships, an organization focused on providing financial resources to ensure quality education for kids.

Monfort, 32, graduated from Colorado State University in December 2009. He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in business administration. Walker is a product of Eaton (Colo.) High School, and currently resides in Denver.

Bill Schmidt
Vice President - Scouting

Bill Schmidt began his direction of the scouting department on Oct. 1, 1999. He was named vice president of scouting on Jan. 2, 2007.

Schmidt, 59, joined the Rockies from the Cleveland Indians, where he served four seasons (1995-1999) as a national crosschecker. Before that, Schmidt supervised the Southern California, Arizona and Nevada regions for the New York Yankees (1988-95). He worked for the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau from 1987-88 after launching his scouting career with the Cincinnati Reds (1982-84). All told, Schmidt has over 30 years of scouting experience. His first job out of college was as head baseball coach at his alma mater, Magnolia High School, in Anaheim, Calif. He also assisted at Santa Ana Junior College (1982-84) and Arizona State University (1985). Professionally, he coached in the Pioneer League for the Reds (1984) and Brewers (1986), before his three seasons coaching the Yankees' New York-Penn League club (1991-93).

Schmidt has a master's degree from Azusa Pacific and a bachelor's degree from Cal. State, Long Beach. Bill and his wife Linda have two sons, Andrew and Matthew.

Colorado Rockies Baseball Operations Department

Zack Rosenthal

Assistant General Manager - Baseball Ops./Assistant General Counsel

Zack Rosenthal enters his 14th season with the Rockies and fifth as assistant general manager of baseball operations and assistant general counsel.

Rosenthal joined the Rockies in 2006 as an intern in player development, after interning for the Boston Red Sox in Fenway Affairs and working as an account manager with the Oakland Athletics. After his internship with the Rockies, Rosenthal was hired as a baseball operations assistant and assistant general counsel, a post he held for four seasons, before serving as the club's director of baseball operations and assistant general counsel for five seasons.

In his current role, Rosenthal assists General Manager Jeff Bridich with contract matters, player transactions, payroll management, salary arbitration, statistical analysis, Major League roster oversight, rules administration, advanced scouting, as well as team operations, daily budgeting and capital expense management, and all legal matters involving the baseball operations department. Additionally, as the club's assistant general counsel he assists with business matters, litigation and other legal issues as needed.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in mass communication from the University of California, Berkeley, Rosenthal earned his J.D. at Boston University School of Law as well as his master's degree in communications from Boston University College of Communication.

Zack and his wife Kara were married in October 2007, and they currently live in Denver with their daughter, Preston.

Jon Weil

Assistant General Manager - Player Personnel

Jon Weil begins his 14th season with the Rockies organization and his 24th season working in Major League Baseball.

Weil was promoted to his current role in November of 2014. In this role, he assists General Manager Jeff Bridich in player personnel acquisitions and oversees both the Rockies' Major League and Minor League scouting efforts. Additionally, he evaluates the Rockies' Major League club and Minor League system, while also evaluating players for acquisition. Prior to his current role, Weil served as the Rockies' director of professional scouting from 2010-2014, after being promoted from manager of professional scouting, a role he served in for two years. In 2012, he was awarded the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Prior to working in professional scouting, Weil worked as the Rockies' manager of Minor League operations for two years, assisting in the operations of the player development department. Weil came to the Rockies after spending nearly five years as an area scout for the Kansas City Royals, where his territory included Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky. His baseball career began while working as a Florida Marlins bat boy in 1996 and 1997, the year they won the World Series title. In 1998 and 1999, he interned in Florida's player relations and scouting departments, then went on to complete MLB's Scout Development Program in 2000.

A native of Hollywood, Fla., Weil graduated from Hollywood Hills High School in 1996. In 2000, he earned a bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Florida, graduating with honors. Subsequently, he received a master's degree in sports management from Nova Southeastern University.

Jon and his wife Laura reside in Denver with their daughters, Anabella and Kendall.

Zach Wilson

Assistant General Manager - Player Development

Zach Wilson enters his 18th season with the Rockies organization, his first as assistant general manager of player development after being promoted in January 2019. Previously, Wilson spent the last five seasons as the senior director of player development.

Wilson began his baseball career with the Rockies' amateur scouting department, where he spent nine seasons, rising to assistant director. During that time, he supervised all amateur scouting personnel, managed the day-to-day operations of the department, organized the First-Year Player Draft and served as the area scout for Colorado and Wyoming. In 2010, Wilson was recognized with the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies.

In January 2011, Wilson was promoted to assistant director of player development, working closely with then senior director of player development and current Executive Vice President & General Manager Jeff Bridich. In his current role, Wilson oversees the development of each Minor League player on the Rockies' eight affiliated farm teams.

A former collegiate second baseman, Wilson played two years at Vincennes University (1997-98), earning Junior College All-American honors in 1997, and two years at Indiana-Purdue University at Fort Wayne (1999-2000), where he was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2016. He received his bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University.

He and his wife Jenny reside in Denver with their daughter, Jadie.

Irma Castañeda

Assistant to Executive Vice President & General Manager

Irma Castañeda begins her 23rd season with the Rockies, fifth year in the baseball operations department and her first as the assistant to the executive vice president and general manager.

Castañeda began working in baseball in 1985 for Milwaukee's Double-A affiliate, the El Paso Diablos, as a seasonal worker until the 1993 season. During the 1995 All-Star FanFest in Arlington, Texas, she served as an event manager, and in 1996, she worked as a ticketing trainee with the Atlanta Braves Triple-A affiliate, the Richmond Braves. In September 1996, Castañeda was hired part-time in the Rockies call center before becoming a full-time employee in the group sales department. In May 2001, she was named assistant to the director of communications/public relations and eventually assistant to the vice president of communications/public relations.

A 1996 graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Castañeda majored in sport management with a minor in business administration. She worked in the sports information department during her time at UT. Born and raised in El Paso, Texas, Irma lives in Morrison, Colo., and has two daughters, Larissa and Tatiana.

Vinny Castilla

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Vinny Castilla is a club original and one of the most popular players in franchise history; 2019 marks his 12th season as special assistant to the general manager.

Castilla, a native of Oaxaca, Mexico, was selected by the Rockies in the 1992 Expansion Draft, playing for Colorado's inaugural club in 1993 and being named to the All-Star team twice over eight seasons with the Rockies organization.

Vinny currently lives in Denver with his wife Samantha and three sons, Marco, Daulton and Cristian.

Ty Coslow

Special Assistant - Player Personnel

Ty Coslow, an original Rockies hire, enters his 28th season with the club and fifth in his current role. Coslow's career began as an associate scout with the Montreal Expos in 1988, before becoming one of Pat Daugherty's first scouting hires with the Rockies in 1992. In his current role, Coslow evaluates professional players on special assignment and assists in player personnel acquisitions.

From Louisville, Ky., Coslow was an area scouting supervisor for 10 seasons before being promoted to Midwest crosschecker in 2002. After three seasons, he was promoted to national crosschecker, a post he held for five seasons. In 2010, Coslow moved over to the professional scouting department, where he scouted opposing organizations for professional acquisitions. Coslow was awarded the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 1997 in recognition of scouting excellence. He was also awarded the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award in 2006, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Over the course of his scouting career, Coslow signed Rockies great Todd Helton as well as big leaguers Mark Thompson and Clint Barmes, among others. Ty and his wife Kim reside in Louisville, Ky., and have two daughters, Courtney and Morgan.

Domenic Di Ricco

Director - Baseball Operations

Domenic Di Ricco enters his fifth season with the Rockies organization and his first as the director of baseball operations. He joined the Rockies in December 2014 after working in the Office of the Commissioner for Major League Baseball from 2013-14, where he worked closely with each Major League team on Major League waivers, rules and transactions.

Di Ricco, 31, is primarily involved in Major League operations, and assists the general manager in matters of rule compliance, player contracts, waivers, roster management and statistical analysis. In addition, he provides support in salary arbitration and free agent acquisitions.

A graduate of Cornell University in 2009, the San Francisco Bay Area native played four seasons as an outfielder for the Big Red, serving as a co-captain his senior year. He went on to play one year professionally for the Rio Grande Valley White Wings of the United Baseball League. Domenic currently resides in Denver.

Paul Egins

Senior Director - Major League Operations

A Rockies original hire, Paul Egins officially joined the club on Oct. 30, 1991. In his current role, Egins, 55, coordinates the Rockies Spring Training operations, Major League team travel, player relations and has special scouting assignments. The Columbus, Ga., native was promoted to director of Major League operations on Nov. 16, 2000, after serving as director of player development from 1997-99. In 2018, Egins was the recipient of the Rocky Mountain Chapter SABR award for Lifetime Achievement in Baseball and was named the Major League Baseball Don Davidson Memorial Award Traveling Secretary of the Year, which was voted on by his peers.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Egins worked for the Atlanta Braves from 1988-91, finishing his time there as assistant to the director of player development and scouting. He also spent two seasons as the team trainer of the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League, and in a similar role at both the University of Georgia and Florida A&M.

Born Sept. 22, 1963, Egins received a bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Georgia in 1986, with graduate work at Florida A&M in sports administration. Paul currently resides in Denver.

Evan Eshleman

Analyst - Baseball Research & Development

Evan Eshleman begins his third season as an analyst with the Rockies after joining the organization in March of 2017.

Eshleman, 24, works in the baseball research and development department and is responsible for statistical analysis and report creation to assist front office personnel at the amateur and professional levels. He works closely with other members of the front office to support player evaluation and acquisition, salary arbitration and analysis, and data retrieval.

A Denver native, Eshleman graduated from Chatfield High School in 2013, before attending the University of Denver where he graduated in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in business information and analytics. He currently resides in Denver, Colo.

Chris Forbes

Assistant Director - Player Development

Chris Forbes enters his fifth year in player development, his first as the assistant director after serving as manager for the past four seasons. As assistant director of player development, Forbes assists Assistant General Manager of Player Development Zach Wilson in all aspects of the Rockies Minor League system. Prior to moving to a front office role in 2015, he spent the previous eight seasons as an area scouting supervisor.

Over the course of his time in the amateur scouting department, Forbes was the area scout in several different parts of the country. He began his tenure scouting Southern Texas, moving from there to the Pacific Northwest, and spent five years scouting Arizona, Utah, New Mexico and Las Vegas. Forbes' scouting skills earned him the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 2011.

Prior to joining the Rockies in 2007, Forbes held several coaching positions at the collegiate level, including stints at Kansas State and University of Northern Colorado. Chris, his wife Lisa, and their children, TJ and Madison, currently reside in Englewood, Colo.

Marc Gustafson

Senior Director - Scouting Operations

Marc Gustafson begins his 27th season with the organization. He was named senior director of scouting operations on Sept. 15, 2011. Gustafson was previously in the player development department, rising to the level of senior director before moving to the scouting department. Prior to joining the front office, he was a trainer in the Rockies' Minor League system for five years.

In his current role, Gustafson supervises all amateur scouting personnel throughout the season, manages the day-to-day operations of the scouting department, organizes the annual First-Year Player Draft in June, and evaluates other talent as assigned throughout the spring, summer and fall.

Born Sept. 14, 1969, Gustafson lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Eaton (Colo.) High School. His great grandparents immigrated to Eaton and his family has lived there for four generations. He went on to play baseball at Doane College in Crete, Neb., and graduated from Colorado State University, earning a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science.

Marc and his wife Amy and their two sons, Jack and Charlie, reside in Broomfield, Colo.

Brittany Haby

Baseball Operations Fellow

Brittany Haby enters her second season with the Rockies as the Baseball Operations Fellow through the MLB Diversity Fellowship Program that will run through December 2019. In this role, Haby assists in various areas of the baseball operations department, from analytics to player contracts and MLB rules.

Prior to joining the Rockies organization, Haby spent the 2015 season as the Football Operations Fellow for the San Francisco 49ers, before working as the Next Gen Stats Researcher at NFL Media from 2016-17.

Born and raised in Helotes, Texas, Haby graduated from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, with a bachelor's in economics-business with a minor in sport management.

Jamie Hollowell

Manager - Baseball Research & Development

Jamie Hollowell enters his fifth season with the Rockies organization, first as the manager of the baseball research and development department.

Hollowell is responsible for the creation and maintenance of the Rockies' proprietary databases and application systems, as well as supporting the baseball operations and scouting departments in player research and evaluations. He also works with third-party vendors to integrate the latest and greatest technologies within the Rockies' internal systems. Prior to joining the Rockies, Hollowell worked as a software developer for a mobile application company, developing APIs, databases, websites and iOS applications.

Born and raised in Erie, Colo., Hollowell graduated from Niwot High School in 2005, before continuing on to Haverford College in Pennsylvania, where he earned a bachelor's degree in computer science while playing varsity baseball for four years.

He and his wife Kacey currently reside in Denver with their daughter, Addi Rae.

Damon Iannelli

Assistant Director - Scouting

Damon Iannelli enters his 24th season with the Rockies working in various scouting roles. He started scouting the Deep South in June of 1995, adding crosschecking to his duties in 2014. In his current role, Iannelli covers the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico while still crosschecking and scouting.

Iannelli was awarded the 2018 Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. He was also named the Rockies Scout of the Year in 2000 and 2012, and Southeast Scout Association Scout of the Year in 2009 and 2014. He has signed 16 players who have reached the Majors, including All-Stars Brad Hawpe, Dexter Fowler and Corey Dickerson.

Born in Whittier, Calif., Iannelli played baseball at Wallace Dothan Junior College in 1986 and Southeastern Louisiana University from 1987-89. He received a bachelor's degree from Southern Mississippi College and an education degree from Mississippi College. Damon and his wife Lisa, a first grade school teacher, reside in Flowood, Miss., with their daughter Nicole and son Joseph.

Brian Jones

Patch, 27, leads the team responsible for developing internal applications and proprietary analytical models to assist with player personnel decisions at the amateur and professional levels, along with managing the Major League advance scouting process. In addition, he assists the general manager and baseball operations staff with player transactions, payroll management, salary arbitration, roster management and free agent acquisitions.

A native of Louisville, Colo., Patch attended Peak to Peak Charter School before continuing to college, where he competed in NCAA golf and completed the AmeriCorps program. He graduated from Colorado State in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics with a concentration in statistics. He then earned his master's degree in data science from Northwestern University in 2016.

Trevor and his wife Elisabeth currently reside in Denver.

Tom Probst

Senior Director - Medical Operations & Special Projects

Tom Probst begins his eighth season as the club's senior director of medical operations and special projects after six seasons as the club's director of medical operations.

In his current role, Probst oversees all medical personnel at both the Major and Minor League levels, as well as the organization-wide workers compensation program. He has also been instrumental in overseeing the club's facilities projects, including Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in Scottsdale, Ariz., the Rookie League club transition to Grand Junction and the Dominican academy complex in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic.

An original hire when the team began Minor League play in 1992, Probst joined the Rockies after five years in the Montreal Expos organization. Probst served as athletic trainer for the franchise's first group of draftees at a June 1992 mini-camp and was the athletic trainer for the first team in organizational history, the Bend Rockies. He went on to work in the Major League training room for the Rockies for the next 12 seasons, first as assistant athletic trainer (1993-98), then as head athletic trainer, beginning on Oct. 27, 1998. In 2003, he and current Head Athletic Trainer Keith Dugger were named Major League Training Staff of the Year by their peers. That same year, Probst was selected to represent the National League as one of its trainers at the All-Star Game in Chicago. Following the 2004 season, he toured Japan with the Major League Baseball All-Stars.

Probst is treasurer for the Executive Board of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), a position he also held in 2004. An active member of PBATS, Probst was the NL representative for the organization in 2002 and 2003, and he was asked to speak in Nagoya, Japan in December 2004. Probst has been a member of the MLB Workers Compensation Quality Council since 2005 and most recently has assisted MLB with development of the Electronic Medical Records System and Injury Surveillance System, and he has participated in the EMR Advisory Committee.

Probst has a degree in physical education from Mankato State University (1981) and a bachelor's degree in physical therapy from Florida International University (1988).

Tom and his wife Gina reside in Littleton with their three sons, Daniel, Nicholas and Christopher.

Born and raised in Siloam Springs, Ark., Sislo attended Siloam Springs High School and went on to attend the University of Tulsa, where she earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics with minors in computer science and economics.

Abi currently resides in Denver.

Jesse Stender

Manager - Minor League Operations

Jesse Stender is in his seventh year in the player development department, his first as the manager of Minor League operations after serving as the coordinator of Minor League operations for the previous five years. Working alongside Zach Wilson and Chris Forbes, he assists in all aspects of the department and is responsible for the administrative tasks within the Rockies' Minor League operations.

This is Stender's sixth year as a full-time member of the Rockies front office, which followed two years of part-time work between the ticketing and player development departments. He was the recipient of the 2017 P.J. Carey Player Development award and was recognized as the organization's Employee of the Month in September 2015.

Stender, 30, graduated from the University of Colorado in May 2011. He earned a bachelor's degree in business marketing and finished at the top of his class in CU's Business of Sports Certificate Program. Stender attended ThunderRidge High School (Highlands Ranch, Colo.), and was a member of many successful baseball and basketball teams there. Jesse currently resides in Denver.

Chris Warren

Advance Scout

A former Rockies draft pick, Chris Warren begins his 15th season as the club's Major League advance scout. He works closely with the coaching staff and players on breaking down upcoming opponents and developing strategy.

Warren was drafted in the 20th round of the 1999 First-Year Player draft by the Rockies. He played six seasons with the organization, including 2001 when he played under former Rockies coach Dave Collins at Salem, helping the Avalanche win the Carolina League Championship. The middle infielder retired after spending the 2003 season at Double-A Tulsa.

A graduate of Cedar Shoals High School in Athens, Ga., Chris attended Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Mark Wiley

Director - Pitching Operations

Mark Wiley enters his seventh season as the Rockies director of pitching operations. In his current role, Wiley is responsible for overseeing the organization's pitching efforts, from draft preparation to the Minor League clubs to the big league team. Wiley was with the Rockies previously, from 2006-07, as a special assistant to player development, and in 2000 as director of player personnel.

Wiley has 50 seasons in professional baseball, including 20 as a player and Minor League coach, 17 as a Major League pitching coach and 13 seasons in the front office. He made his Major League coaching debut in 1987 with the Baltimore Orioles before becoming the pitching coach for the Cleveland Indians (1988-91 and 1995-98), guiding the Indians pitching staff to the lowest ERA in the American League in 1995 and 1996. Prior to returning to the Rockies in 2013, Wiley worked in the Marlins organization as the special assistant to the general manager (2010-12) and pitching coach (2005, 2008-09). Wiley's playing career spanned 11 seasons in professional baseball, including two years in the Major Leagues, appearing with Minnesota in 1975, and San Diego and Toronto in 1978.

A graduate of California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, Wiley was inducted into the Broncos Hall of Fame in February 2016. Mark and his wife Jo Ann have two children, son Clint and daughter Kristen.

Kunio Nakatani is in his 12th season as the Rockies' massage therapist and acupuncturist. He earned his master's degree in oriental medicine from SAMRA University in 2002, and earned his National Certificate Commissions for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine. Nakatani is a state licensed acupuncturist in Colorado and California; he has been practicing acupuncture for 17 years and massage for 22 years.

Prior to working for the Rockies, Nakatani worked as an interpreter in Japanese and English for the Texas Rangers for two seasons (2006-07). Kunio has lived in Denver since 2008.

Gabe Bauer

Director of Physical Performance

Gabe Bauer begins his fifth season as the Rockies' director of physical performance. Bauer served as the organization's Minor League physical performance coordinator for six seasons (2009-14) and the physical performance coach prior to that (2007-08).

A native of Stevens Point, Wis., he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point and his master's degree from St. Cloud State University. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Gabe and his wife Cierra reside in Chandler, Ariz., with their daughter Ellie and son Greyson.

Mike Jasperson

Physical Performance Coach

Mike Jasperson enters his 10th season with the Rockies, his fourth season as the Major League physical performance coach.

Originally from Salt Lake City, Utah, "Jaspy" graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Colorado State University-Pueblo, where he played baseball his junior and senior years. After graduating, he interned at the University of Denver with the strength and conditioning department. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Jasperson currently resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., during the offseason.

Scott Murayama

Rehabilitation Coordinator/Athletic Trainer

Scott Murayama begins his 19th season with the Colorado Rockies and 15th season as the rehabilitation coordinator. From 2001-04, he worked as an athletic trainer for Short-Season Tri-City in the Northwest League. In 2005, he was promoted to his current position as the rehab coordinator, where he works with injured players at the Major League level, helps with daily duties as an athletic trainer and supervises all medical and injury issues with the eight Minor League teams, including the two in the Dominican Republic.

Murayama graduated from Colorado State University in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science with a minor in anatomy and neurobiology. He is a Colorado native, attended Bear Creek High School, and currently resides in Littleton, Colo.

Mike Pontarelli

Manager - Major League Clubhouse

Mike "Tiny" Pontarelli is entering his third season as the home clubhouse manager after previously serving as the Rockies' visiting clubhouse manager for two seasons. This will be Pontarelli's 13th season overall in the Rockies home clubhouse. In his previous role, Pontarelli served as the assistant to the director of home clubhouse operations, where he oversaw the club's equipment inventory and budget. Pontarelli got his start with the Rockies organization as a bat boy and clubhouse attendant in the visiting clubhouse.

Pontarelli was born in Denver and raised in Arvada, Colo. He is a graduate of Arvada West High School and Regis University. He also played baseball while attending Monterey Peninsula College in Monterey, Calif. Mike currently resides in Arvada.

Tyler Sanders

Coordinator - Major League Clubhouse

Tyler Sanders enters his seventh season with the Rockies and his fifth in his current role in the home clubhouse. Prior to joining the Rockies, Sanders spent five seasons in the Atlanta Braves visiting clubhouse, two seasons as the graduate assistant equipment manager for the University of Georgia football team and assisted the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Born in Macon, Ga., Sanders graduated from the University of Georgia in 2009, going on to earn his master's degree in sport management and policy in 2012. He served as a student manager for the 2008 Georgia baseball team that finished as SEC Champions and College World Series finalists.

Tyler and his wife Abby reside in Denver.

Alan Bossart

Manager - Clubhouse Purchasing/Visiting Clubhouse

Alan Bossart enters his third season in his current role with the visiting clubhouse/purchasing manager duties after three seasons as the director of home clubhouse operations. Bossart was previously the visiting clubhouse manager from 2007-2013, where he and his staff were awarded the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award for the National League Visiting Clubhouse of the Year in 2009. One of the club's original employees, Bossart is beginning his 28th year with the Rockies. Previously, he oversaw the promotions, special events, in-game entertainment and TV/radio broadcasting departments.

Bossart is a 48-year resident of Denver and was a member of the Colorado Baseball Commission, charged with the task of bringing Major League Baseball to the city. He attended South High School, where he played baseball and soccer, earning all-conference honors in soccer. Bossart attended Colorado College and University of Denver, studying business management.

Born in Northampton, Mass., Alan and his wife Kim reside in Centennial, Colo., and have three boys: Kyle, Corey and CJ.

Tyler Hines

Culinary Nutritionist

Tyler Hines begins his third season with the Colorado Rockies organization. A graduate of Johnson and Wales University, Hines has most recently worked as the assistant nutritionist for the Denver Broncos.

Hines began his career in the food industry at the age of 14. After playing sports in high school and college, Hines developed a deeper passion for sports nutrition and desired to have an impact on the day-to-day health and nutrition of professional athletes.

He currently resides in Greenwood Village, Colo.

Tyler Karpeichik

Assistant - Culinary Nutritionist

Tyler Karpeichik enters his second season as the assistant to the culinary nutritionist. His responsibilities with the club include planning and preparing all meals in the home clubhouse both prior to and after game days, as well as assisting in the operations at Salt River Fields during Spring Training.

Karpeichik launched his career in food service at the age of 15. He went on to attend Johnson and Wales University in Providence, R.I., where he received his associates degree in culinary arts with a focus on nutrition and a bachelor's degree in food service management. Throughout college, Tyler held multiple managerial roles in the restaurant industry, eventually becoming the Executive Sous Chef of the long standing Wayside Inn in Sudbury, Mass.

Ichiro became the 30th player in Major League history to reach the milestone and was the third Major Leaguer to reach 3,000 hits against the Rockies. The Houston Astros' Craig Biggio reached 3,000 hits on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park off Aaron Cook. San Diego's Rickey Henderson reached the milestone on Oct. 7, 2001 at Qualcomm Stadium off John Thomson.

Colorado Rockies Grounds Crew

Mark Razum

Head Groundskeeper

Mark Razum is in his 25th season as head groundskeeper for Coors Field, and his 41st year in the profession. Razum and his staff have built one of the best playing surfaces in professional sports at the corner of 20th and Blake.

"Raz" recently completed a two-year term as president of The Association of Major League Baseball Groundskeepers. In 1998, Razum's peers named him the Turf/Grass Professional of the Year, an award presented by the Rocky Mountain Turf/Grass Association. He was recognized, in part, for the star design he and his staff cut into the Coors Field grass for the 1998 All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Rockies in October 1994, Razum served six years as head of the Oakland Athletics' grounds crew at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, where players voted the field the best in the American League for three consecutive seasons (1992-94). He spent seven years in charge of spring surfaces for Oakland (1984-89) and the California Angels (1982-84). His groundskeeping career began in 1978 at Municipal Stadium in his native Cleveland, Ohio.

2018: Set professional career highs in starts (32), innings pitched (176.0) and strikeouts (164).

- Made his first career postseason start in Game 2 of the NLDS at Milwaukee, a 4-0 Rockies loss … pitched six innings and allowed one run on four hits with two walks and five strikeouts.
- Went 6-3 with a 3.72 ERA (113.2 IP, 47 ER) in 20 starts in the first half, 1-6 with a 6.06 ERA (62.1 IP, 42 ER) in 12 starts after the All-Star break.
- Recorded consecutive outings of eight scoreless innings June 29 at Los Angeles-NL and July 4 vs. San Francisco … was the third pitcher in franchise history to record consecutive outings of at least eight scoreless innings (also: Ubaldo Jimenez, May 26-31, 2010 and Jason Marquis, June 30-July 6, 2009) … was the first Rockies pitcher to accomplish that feat while allowing four or fewer hits in each start, and the first MLB pitcher to do so since Jake Arrieta, Aug. 30-Sept. 5, 2015.
- Pitched 7.2 shutout innings in his final start of the regular season on Sept. 30 … it was his third start of 7.2 or more shutout innings in the season, the most such starts since Ubaldo Jiménez in 2010.

2017: Made his first career Opening Day roster and went 6-6 with a 4.81 ERA (86.0 IP, 46 ER) across 17 appearances, 15 starts.

- Made 15 starts and also worked the first two relief appearances of his professional career … was 5-6 with a 5.11 ERA (81.0 IP, 46 ER) as a starter, 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA (5.0 IP, 0 ER) in his two relief appearances.
- Had two different stints on the 10-day disabled list and one on the 60-day DL … placed on the 10-day disabled list on June 4 (retroactive to June 1) with left knee inflammation … reinstated on June 22 but made just two appearances (one start) before being placed on the disabled list again on June 26 … underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left knee on July 3 and was transferred to the 60-day DL on July 26.
- After being reinstated from the 60-day disabled list on Sept. 10, went 3-1 with a 1.19 ERA (22.2 IP, 3 ER), three walks and 18 strikeouts in four appearances, three starts.
- Pitched seven scoreless innings in his last start of the season, Sept. 26 vs. Miami, the longest scoreless outing of his career.
- Career-high-tying 10 strikeouts May 6 vs. Arizona (also: Aug. 24, 2016 at Milwaukee), the first double-digit strikeout game of his career at Coors Field.
- Pitched one inning of relief in the National League Wild Card Game at Arizona, allowing two runs on two hits, including one home run.

2016: Made his Major League debut on July 12 and went 5-6 with a 3.54 ERA, the second-lowest ERA by a rookie in franchise history (min. 100 IP).
- Made his Major League debut June 12 vs. San Diego … pitched 6.1 innings, allowing one run on six hits with no walks and six strikeouts, earning the no-decision in a 2-1 Rockies win.
- Earned his first career win July 9 vs. Philadelphia … pitched six innings and allowed two runs on a career-high nine hits with no walks and six strikeouts … also went 2-for-2 with a home run and two RBI … singled in the third inning and homered in his next at-bat, the only home run by a Rockies pitcher in 2016 … became the second Rockies pitcher to record his first Major League win, hit and home run in the same game (also: Jason Jennings, Aug. 23, 2001 at New York-NL).
- After his June 11 recall, ranked among MLB rookie pitchers in FIP (3.64, 1st), innings pitched (114.1, 1st), ERA (3.54, 2nd), starts (19, T3rd) and strikeouts (99, 4th).
- Made six starts in the Minors, including one rehab outing for High-A Modesto, going 2-2 with a 2.64 ERA (30.2 IP, 8 ER).

2015: Missed the entire 2015 season due to a left elbow injury.

2014: Named the Double-A Texas League Pitcher of the Year after going 7-4 with a league-leading 1.98 ERA (118.1 IP, 26 ER), 40 walks and 106 strikeouts for Double-A Tulsa.
- Was also named MiLB.com Organization All-Star and a Baseball America Double-A All-Star.
- Went 4-1 with a 1.01 ERA (62.2 IP, 7 ER) in 11 starts after the All-Star break … was 3-3 with a 3.07 ERA (55.2 IP, 19 ER) prior to the break.

2013: Made 13 starts for High-A Modesto and three starts for Short-Season Tri-City, going a combined 4-3 with a 2.81 ERA (89.2 IP, 28 ER).
- Began the season with Modesto and went 0-1 with a 3.80 ERA (42.2 IP, 18 ER) in eight first-half starts.
- Made three starts with the Dust Devils while on a rehab assignment from July 22-Aug. 1 and went 1-1 with a 0.60 ERA (15.0 IP, 1 ER) before returning to Modesto for the remainder of the season.
- Was a Spring Training non-roster invitee.

2012: Made 20 starts for Low-A Asheville in his first professional season, going 12-3 with a South Atlantic League-leading 2.47 ERA (120.1 IP, 33 ER).
- Was named to the South Atlantic League Post-Season All-Star-Team and MiLB.com Organization All-Star after going 7-2 with a 2.01 ERA (71.2 IP, 16 ER) in 12 starts after the All-Star break (7-2, 71.2 IP, 16 ER).
- Rated by MLB.com as the Rockies' second-best pitching prospect and sixth-best prospect overall … ranked the seventh-best Rockies prospect by Baseball America.

TONY C. AWARD

Chad Bettis was the recipient of the 2017 Tony Conigliaro Award in voting conducted by a 21-person committee of media members, Major League Baseball executives, Boston Red Sox fan representatives, and Conigliaro's brothers, Richie and Billy. The Conigliaro Award has been given every year since 1990 in memory of the former Red Sox , whose career was tragically shortened by a beanball in 1967, and whose life ended in 1990 at the age of 45. It is awarded to a "Major Leaguer who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination, and courage that were trademarks of Tony C." Bettis is the second Colorado Rockie to receive the Conigliaro Award. Pitcher Aaron Cook was honored in 2005.

Right-Handed Pitcher

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Seventh in club history with 520 career strikeouts
- Only Pedro Astacio (15) has more 10-plus strikeout games in franchise history than Gray's 12 outings
- The only pitcher in franchise history to have three games of 12 or more strikeouts … also has three games in his career with double-digit strikeouts and no walks, tied for the most such games in team history (also: Jorge De La Rosa, Pedro Astacio)
- Fifth pitcher in Rockies history to make consecutive Opening Day starts (2017, 2018)
- One of five MLB pitchers to have two Opening Day starts and one playoff start over the last two years (also: Clayton Kershaw, Corey Kluber, Jon Lester, Justin Verlander)
- In 2016, set the Rockies' rookie single-season record for strikeouts with 185
- Set a Rockies and Coors Field record with 16 strikeouts in his first career complete-game shutout, Sept. 17, 2016 vs. San Diego

| MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT | FIRST ML WIN |
|---|---|
| 8/4/15 vs. SEA | 5/13/16 vs. NYM |

2018: Made his second career Opening Day start, becoming the fifth pitcher in franchise history to start on Opening Day in consecutive years.

- The Rockies won nine consecutive starts by Gray from June 22-Aug. 22, which tied a franchise record set by Ubaldo Jiménez in 2010 for consecutive team wins in starts by a single pitcher.
- Pitched seven or more innings while allowing two or fewer earned runs in four consecutive starts July 14-Aug. 5 … it was the longest such streak since Ubaldo Jiménez pitched a franchise-record seven such games in succession, May 3-June 6, 2010.
- Optioned to Triple-A Albuquerque on June 29 and made two starts with the Isotopes, going 1-0 with a 3.38 ERA (10.2 IP, 4 ER), four walks and 13 strikeouts … allowed four hits and one home run.
- Went 2-0 and allowed two or fewer runs over seven or more innings pitched in each of his four starts after being recalled on July 14 … went 4-2 with a 4.68 ERA (73.0 IP, 38 ER) with 22 walks and 58 strikeouts in 13 starts in the second half, after going 8-7 with a 5.44 ERA (99.1 IP, 60 ER), 30 walks and 125 strikeouts in 18 starts in the half.

2017: Made his first career Opening Day start, and his first career postseason start in the National League Wild Card Game at Arizona.

- Was on the Opening Day roster for the first time after beginning 2016 on the disabled list (abdominal strain).
- Made three starts to begin the season, allowing six runs across 12.1 innings (4.38 ERA), before being placed on the disabled list on April 14 (broken bone, left foot).
- Went 5-1 with a 3.13 ERA (46.0 IP, 16 ER), 13 walks and 41 strikeouts at home, and 5-3 with a 4.06 ERA (64.1 IP, 29 ER), 17 walks and 71 strikeouts on the road.
- Allowed three or fewer earned runs in 13 consecutive starts to end the season, the second-longest single-season streak by a Rockies starter in franchise history (longest: Ubaldo Jiménez,14 games, 2010) … Gray went 7-3 with a 2.64 ERA (78.1 IP, 23 ER), 16 walks and 80 strikeouts over that span.
- Started the National League Wild Card game at Arizona … allowed four runs on seven hits in 1.1 innings pitched, the shortest start of his career.

2016: Spent his first full season in the Major Leagues, going 10-10 with a 4.61 ERA (168.0 IP, 86 ER) while setting a Rockies rookie single-season record with 185 strikeouts.

- Earned his first career win on May 13 vs. New York-NL, after allowing two runs on five hits with eight strikeouts in seven innings pitched.
- Recorded 16 quality starts, the second-most on the Rockies in 2016 (Chad Bettis with 17), and the most ever in a single season for a Rockies rookie.

- Pitched his first career complete-game shutout Sept. 17 vs. San Diego, allowing four hits and no walks with a Rockies and Coors Field record 16 strikeouts … he struck out six batters in succession between the second and third innings to set a record for the most consecutive strikeouts for a Rockies pitcher … he struck out four batters in the second inning, the fourth time in Rockies history that four opponents struck out in one inning.
- His strikeouts per nine innings rate of 9.91 led all Major League rookies, ranked sixth in the Majors overall, and was the highest single-season rate in Rockies history.

2018: His single-season franchise record 230 strikeouts (previous: Ubaldo Jiménez, 214 in 2010) ranked fourth in the National League.

- A member of his second career Opening Day roster … broke camp with the 2017 club as a reliever.
- Only the second Rockie pitcher (Mike Hampton, 2001-02) in franchise history to win a Silver Slugger Award … led all Major League pitchers with 18 hits, a .300 batting average and a .350 slugging percentage.
- His 18 hits were the most by a pitcher since Zack Greinke recorded 19 hits in 2013 and the most by a Rockies pitcher since Hampton (21) and Jason Jennings (19) in 2002.
- Named National League Pitcher of the Month for September after going 3-1 with a 2.14 ERA (33.2 IP, 8 ER), five walks and 48 strikeouts … became the third pitcher in Rockies history (fourth time) to earn Pitcher of the Month honors (also: Ubaldo Jiménez, April & May, 2010 and Shawn Chacon, April, 2003).
- Finished with a 3.77 ERA, the eighth-lowest ERA in Rockies history for a single season … his .241 batting average against ranked sixth all-time.
- His 2.95 road ERA (106.2 IP, 35 ER) ranked eighth in the NL … tied for sixth in the NL with eight road wins … his .203 (79-for-390) opponents' batting average against on the road ranked ninth in the league.
- His 49 strikeouts from Aug.19-Sept.10 tied for the club record for most over a span (Astacio, May 8-29, 2000) … his 44 strikeouts from Aug. 25-Sept. 10 were the most over a four-game span in club history … 33 strikeouts Aug. 25-Sept. 4, the most over a three-game span.
- Fanned 11 or more batters in three consecutive starts from Aug 30-Sept. 10, the player in franchise history to strike out 11-plus in consecutive starts … accomplished the feat a second time Sept. 21-26 … only the fourth Rockies pitcher to record double-digit strikeouts in back-to-back-games (Jon Gray, Jorge De La Rosa, Pedro Astacio) … three-straight starts with 10-plus strikeouts, one start short of matching Pedro Astacio's club record set May 8-24, 2000.
- Recorded 13 strikeouts Aug. 30 at San Diego, tied for the third-most in franchise history, the most for a Rockies pitcher since Jon Gray's 16-strikeout performance vs. the Padres on Sept. 17, 2016 … pitcher in franchise history to strikeout out at least 13 batters (Gray, Ubaldo Jiménez, Shawn Chacon, Darryl Kile).
- Tied a modern Major League record (since 1900) by striking out the first eight batters of the game vs. the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 26 … matched the Astros' Jim Deshaies (Sept. 23, 1986) and the Mets' Jacob deGrom (Sept. 15, 2014) … before the modern era, Mickey Welch of the New York Gothams started a game with nine consecutive strikeouts on Aug. 28, 1884 … the eight straight strikeouts were also a franchise record for consecutive strikeouts in a single game and tied the franchise record for strikeouts vs. consecutive batters faced (also: Justin Miller, three games, Sept. 7-11, 2015) … finished with 11 strikeouts to raise his season total to 221, which surpassed Ubaldo Jimenez's club record of 214, set in 2010.

- Tossed an immaculate inning (nine pitches, three strikeouts) in the fourth inning Aug. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, the second Rockies pitcher to accomplish the feat (also: Rex Brothers, June 14, 2014 at San Francisco) and the pitcher to accomplish the feat at Coors Field.
- Recorded 12-straight quality starts from July 29-Sept. 26, tied for the second-longest single-season streak in franchise history … Ubaldo Jimenez had a 14-start streak to begin the 2010 season and a 12-start streak in 2009.
- Started Game 3 of the NLDS vs. Milwaukee at Coors Field, a 6-0 Rockies loss that eliminated them from the postseason … pitched innings and allowed two runs on seven hits with one walk and strikeouts.
- Also started the NL West Division tiebreaker at Los Angeles-NL on Oct. 1 … suffered a 5-2 Rockies loss after allowing four runs (two earned) on hits with two walks and nine strikeouts … all four runs were scored on two, two-run home runs.

2017: Made his first Opening Day Roster and led all Major League rookies with 14 quality starts and 147 strikeouts.
- Went 11-7 with a 4.39 ERA (162.0 IP, 79 ER), 49 walks and 147 strikeouts in 29 starts … his 11 wins were tied for first among all Major League rookie pitchers (also: Kyle Freeland).
- Recorded six consecutive quality starts from July 7-Aug. 8 … per Elias, it is the longest such streak by a Rockies rookie (previous: five quality starts, four times; last: Kyle Freeland, April 23-May 16, 2017).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 133 relief appearances with Colorado since 2015, has gone 10-5 with a 3.52 ERA (191.2 IP, 75 ER), the sixth-lowest by a Rockies reliever in franchise history (min. 150 innings)
- Led the National League in innings pitched by a reliever in 2017, tossing 85 innings out of the bullpen
- Pitched two complete games at Coors Field in 2015, becoming the first pitcher to record two complete games in one season in Denver since Aaron Cook in 2008
- Made his Major League debut with the Cubs in a start Aug. 21, 2012 at Milwaukee, pitching five innings and allowing one run on one hit in the 5-2 Cubs loss

| MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT | FIRST ML WIN | FIRST ML SAVE |
|---|---|---|
| 8/21/12 with CHC at MIL | 9/14/12 with CHC vs. PIT | 9/12/17 with COL at ARI |

2018: Made 49 relief appearances around two stints on the 10-day disabled list in his second season as a full-time reliever.

- Placed on the 10-day disabled list for the time on April 23 with a right intercostal strain and was reinstated on May 4 … placed on the DL a second time on July 24 with plantar fasciitis in his left foot and was reinstated on Aug. 9.
- Scored upon in 24 of his 49 appearances, including multiple runs in 16 games … scored upon four times in 14 appearances after his reinstatement from the DL on Aug. 9 (4.20 ERA).
- Appeared in each of the Rockies' four postseason games, tossing four scoreless innings with two hits, two walks and two strikeouts.

2017: Made a career-high 60 appearances, all in relief, going 5-1 with a career-best 2.65 ERA (85.0 IP, 25 ER).

- Second in MLB, in the NL, with 85.0 innings pitched as a reliever … tied for the seventh-most relief innings in Rockies history, the most since Josh Roenicke tossed 88.2 innings in 2012.
- Worked two-plus innings 17 times, including three or more times … entered a game in the inning three times … recorded a 1.26 ERA (43.0 IP, 10 ER) and a .223 batting average against when working two or more innings.
- Scoreless in 40 of 60 appearances, his season as a full-time reliever … allowed multiple runs times, including a season-high four runs on April 26 vs. Washington.
- Placed on the disabled list April 2 (retroactive to March 30) … reinstated April 9 and made his 2017 debut vs. Los Angeles-NL, pitching two innings.
- Scored upon eight times in 32 road outings, going 4-1 with a 1.88 ERA (48.0 IP, 10 ER), 11 walks and 34 strikeouts … since 2015, is 5-1 with a 1.82 ERA (69.1 IP, 14 ER) in 41 road games.
- In 22 appearances from Aug. 4 to the end of the season, went 2-1 with a 2.10 ERA (30.0 IP, 7 ER), four walks and 28 strikeouts.
- Recorded two saves, the of his career, both against Arizona … save of his career on May 6 after pitching three scoreless innings to close the Rockies 9-1 win vs. Arizona, the 18th three-inning save in franchise history.
- Made his career postseason appearance in the NL Wild Card Game at Arizona … pitched 2.1 scoreless innings, allowing two hits and two walks with three strikeouts.

2016: Made seven starts, but was primarily utilized as a reliever and made 22 appearances out of the bullpen in his second season with the Rockies.

- As a starter, went 1-4 with a 5.08 ERA (39.0 IP, 22 ER), 15 walks and 28 strikeouts … recorded three quality starts but pitched more than six innings in just one of his starts.
- Earned his only win as a starter in his last start of the season, June 8 at Los Angeles-NL … pitched six shutout innings, allowing three hits and one walk with three strikeouts.

- In 22 relief appearances, went 2-1 with a 2.58 ERA (45.1 IP, 13 ER), eight walks and 41 strikeouts … pitched two or more innings 12 times.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list June 14 with a strained left shoulder … was reinstated July 27 and went 1-1 with a 3.03 ERA (29.2 IP, 10 ER) in his 17 relief appearances of the season.
- Streak of 16.1 scoreless innings from April 8-May 23 … allowed hits with two walks and 12 strikeouts over that span.
- Allowed Ichiro Suzuki's 3,000th hit in the seventh inning at Coors Field on Aug. 7, a game Colorado lost 10-7 to Miami.

2015: Made a career-high 22 starts with two relief appearances in his first season with the Rockies, and began the season with Triple-A Albuquerque before making his Rockies debut May 26 at Cincinnati.

- Pitched two complete games at Coors Field, the first on Aug. 16 vs. San Diego (shutout) and the second on Sept. 3 vs. San Francisco … became the first Rockies pitcher to record multiple complete games in one season since Ubaldo Jiménez and Jhoulys Chacin both had two in 2011.
- Became the first Rockies pitcher to pitch two complete games at Coors Field since Aaron Cook in 2008 … also became the 19th Rockies pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout, and the 13th to accomplish the feat in Denver (12th at Coors Field, last: Tyler Matzek Sept. 5, 2014 vs. San Diego).
- Became the first Rockies pitcher to log five consecutive quality starts (June 21-July 20) since Jhoulys Chacin had seven straight in 2013.
- Recorded his first career home run in the fourth inning on July 30 at St. Louis … collected a career-high two hits and a career-high-tying two RBI.

2014: Began the year at Triple-A Iowa before being recalled April 12 for the first of three stints with Chicago-NL, then was claimed off waivers by the Rockies Sept. 27.

- Made four relief appearances (the first of his Major League career) with the Cubs, all of at least two innings, receiving no decisions in those four games … allowed 10 runs over 12.2 innings.
- Went 8-13 with a 4.31 ERA (146.1 IP, 70 ER), 38 walks and 97 strikeouts in 23 starts for Triple-A Iowa.
- Was 2-4 with a 2.63 ERA (41.0 IP, 12 ER) in six May starts, including a no-hitter May 7 at New Orleans … the no-hitter was the first of his career and the first no-hitter in the Pacific Coast League in five years.

2013: Split the season between Triple-A Iowa and Chicago-NL, pitching a combined career-high 187.1 innings.

- Recorded a 2.64 ERA (44.1 IP, 13 ER) in his first eight starts with the Cubs on the season, July 2-Aug. 25 … had a 6.55 ERA (22.0 IP, 16 ER) over his final five outings.
- Named a Mid-Season All-Star with Iowa … went 8-7 with a 3.35 ERA (121.0 IP, 45 ER) in 19 appearances, 18 starts, with the Triple-A club.

2012: Made his Major League debut Aug. 21 in Milwaukee and allowed one run on one hit, while walking two and striking out four over five innings, but took the loss.

- Pitched a season-high five innings in five of seven outings, and held the opponent to two or fewer runs in four starts.
- Recorded his first Major League hit with a triple off Marco Estrada in his first Major League at-bat (1-for-2).
- Made 25 starts for Triple-A Iowa, going 8-9 with a 4.55 ERA (140.1 IP, 71 ER).

2011: Split his season between Double-A Tennessee and Triple-A Iowa.

- Went 3-2 with a 3.91 ERA (76.0 IP, 33 ER) at Tennessee, and went 5-2 with a 4.02 ERA (62.2 IP, 28 ER) in his first career stint with Triple-A Iowa.

2010: Pitched in 24 games (21 starts) between High-A Daytona and Double-A Tennessee, combining to go 6-4 with a 3.11 ERA (110.0 IP, 38 ER).

- Began the season with Daytona, and was 4-3 with a 3.36 ERA (91.0 IP, 34 ER) in 20 games (17 starts).
- Promoted to Tennessee in August and went 2-1 with a 1.89 ERA (19.0 IP, 4 ER) in four starts.

- Hit .240 (55-for-229) in 83 games … played 77 games, 66 starts at catcher … also played second base (four games) and third (one game) in a backup role.
- Placed on the 7-day disabled list (concussion) May 3, transferred to the 10-day disabled list on May 12 … rehab assignment with Triple-A Albuquerque May 12-16.
- Optioned to Albuquerque on July 22 … batted .250 (14-for-54) with doubles, one triple, two home runs and nine in RBI in 14 games … recalled Aug. 22.

2016: Made his Major League debut after beginning the campaign on the Opening Day roster with Colorado.

- Debuted April 5 at Arizona, entering the game at catcher in the bottom of the eighth inning.
- First Major League hit in his career start, April 10 vs. San Diego, a single to right off James Shields.
- Recorded Major League home run off Shelby Miller, en route to a career-high four RBI June 25 vs. Arizona.
- Made 58 starts at catcher, with the club going 28-30 in those games … batted .260 (51-for-196) as a starter with 13 doubles, two triples, three home runs, 20 RBI, 20 walks and 49 strikeouts.
- Batted .321 (27-for-94) with six doubles, one triple, two home runs and 12 RBI in 29 games after the All-Star break … post All-Star break average was 14th-best in the NL, second-highest among the league's catchers.
- Played seven games at second base, three at shortstop.

2015: For the second straight season, left knee issues ended his season prematurely.
- Did not play after June 30 and underwent a left knee meniscectomy July 6 in Cleveland (Dr. Richard Parker) to repair a cartilage tear in the knee.
- Appeared in 56 games behind the plate and three at shortstop … did not hit above .231 in any of his three Minor League months and was 7-for-61 (.115) against LHP.

2014: Appeared in 66 games at catcher (0 errors, 491 TC) and threw out 25 of 53 base runners attempting to steal off him (47%).
- Appeared in 10 games at second base and eight games at shortstop … left knee strain ended his season July 26.
- Played for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League after the season, batting .255 (14-55) with five runs scored and eight RBI in 15 games … added to the 40-man roster Nov. 20.

2013: Entered the season rated the seventh-best prospect in the Indians system according to MLB.com.
- Transitioned to catcher in Spring Training.
- Spent the first month of the season at extended Spring Training, working on his defense before being sent to Carolina, where he spent the remainder of the season … after the season, played in the Arizona Fall League.

2012: Spent the season at Low-A Carolina at just 20 years of age.
- Led the Carolina League in triples, tied for eighth in doubles and ninth in runs scored.
- Hit .291 (73-251) in the second half, with 17 doubles, seven home runs, 31 RBI and .818 OPS.
- Entered the season as the seventh-rated prospect in the Indians organization according to Baseball America.

FINAL OVERALL RECORD: 91-72 (.558)
Second in NL West, 1.0 game behind Los Angeles
Home: 47-34 Road: 44-38

THE 2018 ROCKIES made the postseason for the second straight season, their first back-to-back postseason appearances in franchise history … both times have entered as the second Wild Card … Colorado was in a tie for first place in the National League West Division before dropping the tiebreaker game in Los Angeles on Oct. 1.

The Rockies finished the 2018 regular season with a record of 91-72, their second-best record in franchise history and their best since going a franchise-best 92-70 in 2009. The club spent 25 days in first place, four days tied for first place, 61 days in second place, 14 days tied for second place, 31 days in third place, six days tied for third place and 22 days in fourth place.

Colorado finished with their best road record in franchise history at 44-38, the third time in franchise history that the Rockies have finished above .500 on the road (went 41-40 in both 2017 and 2009).

At the All-Star break, the Rockies had an overall record of 51-45 (.531), including a record of 23-23 (.500) at home and a record of 28-22 (.560) on the road. They went 40-27 (.597) in the second half, including a 24-11 (.686) record at home, and a 16-16 (.500) record on the road. Their runs-per-game average was 4.86 prior to the All-Star break and 4.67 in the second half.

The Rockies went 41-36 (.532) against NL West opponents, their third-most wins against their division in franchise history (42 in 2017, 43 in 2007), and their fourth-best winning percentage. Their longest winning streak on the season was eight games, Sept. 21-28 (three-game sweep at Arizona, four-game sweep vs. Philadelphia, one win vs. Washington). It was their longest win streak since last winning eight consecutive games April 12-20, 2013.

HOME/ROAD: Colorado went 47-34 (.580) in their 81 home games in 2018, their most wins in Denver since going 52-29 (.642) at Coors Field in 2010. At home, the Rockies ranked first in the National League in runs (445), hits (786), doubles (166), batting average (.287), on-base percentage (.350) and slugging percentage (.503); tied for first (also: Los Angeles) in home runs (119) and ranked second in triples (33).

On the road, the Rockies finished with a record of 44-38 (.537), their best road record in franchise history. It marked just the third time in franchise history (and the second consecutive season following their 41-40 road record in 2017) that the Rockies finished the season with a winning percentage over .500 on the road. Their road record has improved each season since 2013.

DAY/NIGHT: Colorado went 25-27 (.481) in day games, which ranked 20th in the Major Leagues and was the lowest among any team that qualified for postseason play. At night, the Rockies went 66-45 (.595), their highest winning percentage at night in franchise history and the second-highest in the NL in 2018.

DAYS OF WEEK: The Rockies went 12-14 in Sunday games, 10-8 in Monday games, 13-12 in Tuesday games, 14-9 in Wednesday games, 10-7 in Thursday games, 16-11 in Friday games and 16-11 in Saturday games. The Rockies played three games that fell on holidays, and they went 1-2 in those contests.

EXTRA INNINGS: The Rockies went 5-6 in extra innings in 2018, their most wins in extras since winning seven extra-innings games in 2014. They went 2-2 in extras at home, one season after playing no extra-innings games at Coors Field. They went 3-4 in extras on the road.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The Rockies went 13-7 in Interleague Play in 2018, their most wins and their third-highest winning percentage against the American League in franchise history.

Kyle Freeland's 1.50 ERA (24.0 IP, 4 ER, 2-0 record in four starts) in Interleague games was tied for the fifth-lowest in the Majors, and was the second-lowest for an NL pitcher. German Márquez's 1.74 ERA (20.2 IP, 4 ER, 3-0 record in three starts) against the AL was the 10th-best in Interleague Play.

Carlos González led MLB with a .406 (28-for-69) Interleague batting average, ranked second with a .725 slugging percentage, tied for second with 10 doubles, ranked fifth with 28 hits and ranked sixth with a .453 on-base percentage.

PLAYERS USED/ROOKIES: Colorado used 41 players, which is tied for the fewest players used in a season (also 2017, 1995). The Rockies used 20 position players and 21 pitchers. The figure includes a total of 10 rookies (five position players, five pitchers).

The Rockies saw seven Major League debuts in 2018: Noel Cuevas (April 22 vs. Chicago-NL), Harrison Musgrave (April 23 vs. San Diego), Sam Howard (June 10 vs. Arizona), Jerry Vasto (June 10 vs. Arizona), Yency Almonte (June 21 vs. New York-NL), Garrett Hampson (July 21 at Arizona) and DJ Johnson (Sept. 9 vs. Los Angeles-NL).

IN-SEASON ACQUISITIONS: The Rockies acquired three players from outside the organization over the course of the 2018 season who played at the Major League level. All three players appeared in postseason play for Colorado.

Outfielder Matt Holliday made his second career stint with Colorado (made his Major League debut for the Rockies in 2004 and played parts of five seasons prior to a 2008 trade to Oakland for three players, including Carlos González). He was signed to a Minor League contract on July 29 and was recalled from Triple-A Albuquerque on Aug. 23. In 25 games (14 starts) for the Rockies, he batted .283 (15-for-53) with three runs, two doubles, two home runs, three RBI and 12 walks.

South Korean-native Seunghwan Oh was acquired via trade from Toronto in exchange for three Minor League players on July 26. In 25 relief appearances for Colorado, the right-hander went 2-0 with one save and a 2.53 ERA (21.1 IP, 6 ER), seven walks and 24 strikeouts.

Catcher Drew Butera was acquired via trade from Kansas City in exchange for Jerry Vasto on Aug. 3. He batted .214 (3-for-14) with one home run and three RBI across 10 games (five starts) for the Rockies.

BATTING: The 2018 Rockies finished with a .256 batting average (1,418-for-5,541), their lowest batting average for a season in franchise history. They scored 780 runs with 280 doubles, 42 triples, 210 home runs, 507 walks, 1,397 strikeouts, a .322 on-base percentage and a .435 slugging percentage.

The 210 home runs were the fifth-most in franchise history, and the most since the Rockies hit 213 home runs in 2001. The on-base percentage of .322 was the second-lowest in franchise history, next to 2015's figure of .315.

Nolan Arenado led the National League with 38 home runs, the third time in his career he has led or tied for the league lead in home runs and the first time he has won the home run crown outright. He became the 12th player in National League history to lead the league in home runs three or more times, the first since Mike Schmidt, and he became the second player in Major League history to record at least 35 home runs and 35 doubles in four consecutive seasons (also Albert Belle, 1993-96).

It was Arenado's fourth consecutive season with at least 30 home runs and 100 RBI, making him the fourth Rockies player with four such seasons (also: Todd Helton, Vinny Castilla and Larry Walker) and the third with four consecutive years (also: Castilla and Helton). He became the ninth third baseman in MLB history with four 30/100 seasons and the fourth to do it in four-straight seasons (also: Castilla, Chipper Jones and Alex Rodriguez).

Charlie Blackmon recorded his third consecutive season with at least 100 runs scored and 25 home runs, joining Willie Mays and Duke Snider as the only NL center fielders to achieve these plateaus in three consecutive seasons.

Blackmon hit for his first career cycle, the ninth cycle in Rockies history, in the 162nd game of the season. It was the first cycle in a 162nd game of the season in Major League history. His 17-game hitting streak Sept. 8-25 tied for the longest hitting streak in the National League in 2018, and was the longest by a Rockies player since David Dahl's 17-game streak in 2016.

In his third Major League season, Trevor Story ranked among National League leaders in extra-base hits (85, home runs (37, second), slugging percentage (.567, second), doubles (42, tied for fourth), RBI (108, tied for fourth), stolen bases (27, sixth), multi-hit games (51, tied for seventh) and hits (174, 10th). He became the shortstop in MLB history with at least 40 doubles, 30 home runs and 25 stolen bases. He is the 16th player (19th time) to reach those numbers, and the third Rockies player to do so (Larry Walker, 1997, and Ellis Burks, 1996).

Story joined Ernie Banks (1957-58, 1960) and Honus Wagner (1903-04, 1907-09) as the only shortstops to lead the National League in extra-base hits. His 85 extra-base hits are the second-most by a shortstop in NL history behind Jimmy Rollins' 88 extra-base hits in 2007.

STARTING PITCHING: Rockies starting pitchers went 59-43 with 883 strikeouts, which tied for the sixth-most strikeouts in the National League. They recorded a 4.17 ERA (932.0 IP, 432 ER). which was the second-lowest in franchise history behind their 4.10 ERA in 2009. The 932.0 innings pitched were the most in the NL, the 12th-most in franchise history and the most since Rockies starters pitched 939.0 innings in 2011.

Colorado's starters logged 84 quality starts, their third-most in franchise history and the most since the 2010 Rockies posted 86 quality outings.

Per Elias, the Rockies became the first team since the 2011 Tampa Bay Rays to exclusively use starting pitchers who had never played for another Major League team.

Kyle Freeland made 33 starts, going 17-7 with a 2.85 ERA (202.1 IP, 64 ER), the lowest ERA in a full season in franchise history and the fourth-lowest in the NL for 2018. It was the second-lowest ERA in franchise history among ERA qualifiers, trailing Marvin Freeman's 2.80 ERA (112.2 IP, 35 ER) in the strike-shortened 1994 season.

Freeland's 202.1 innings pitched ranked fifth in the National League, and he became the first Rockies pitcher to reach 200 innings pitched in a season since Ubaldo Jiménez in 2010 (221.2 IP). He recorded 24 quality starts, tied for the third-most in the NL and tied for the second-most in franchise history (also Ubaldo Jiménez in 2009).

German Márquez recorded a single-season franchise-record 230 strikeouts (previous: Ubaldo Jiménez, 214 in 2010), which ranked fourth in the National League. His 2.95 road ERA (106.2 IP, 35 ER) ranked eighth in the NL, and he tied for sixth in the NL with eight road wins.

Márquez struck out 11 or more batters in three consecutive starts from Aug 30-Sept. 10. In franchise history, only Pedro Astacio has recorded four straight double-digit strikeouts games (May 8-24, 2000).

On Sept. 26 vs. Philadelphia, Márquez tied a Major League record with eight consecutive strikeouts to begin a game (also Jim Deshaies in 1986 and Jacob deGrom in 2014).

RELIEF PITCHING: Rockies relievers went 32-29 (.525) and compiled a 4.62 ERA (520.1 IP, 267 ER), which ranks 11th in franchise history. The 520.1 relief innings pitched were the fewest in the National League, the third-fewest in the Majors and the fewest by the Rockies since 2011 (508.2). Their 526 strikeouts were the third-most in franchise history and the fifth-fewest in the NL.

Colorado recorded 51 saves, the most in franchise history. 43 of those saves were converted by Wade Davis, who led MLB and set a new franchise record, surpassing Greg Holland (2017) and Jose Jimenez (2002), who held the previous record with 41 saves.

FIELDING: Colorado committed 74 errors, the second-fewest in the National League and the second-fewest in franchise history behind the 68 errors committed in 2007. Their .988 fielding percentage was the third-highest in the NL and the second-highest in franchise history.

The Rockies turned 162 double plays, the most in the NL and the third-most in the Major Leagues.

Nolan Arenado led NL third basemen with 312 assists and 44 double plays turned. The 44 double plays set a single-season franchise record for third basemen.

BASERUNNING: The Rockies stole 95 bases, tied for the third-most in the National League, one season after recording just 59 steals, the second-fewest in franchise history for a single season.

Trevor Story's 27 steals were the most for a Rockies player since Charlie Blackmon stole 43 in 2015, and were the most in a single season for a shortstop in franchise history.

ALL-STARS: The Rockies sent three players to the All-Star Game in Washington, D.C. Trevor Story was named to his first All-Star roster, Charlie Blackmon his third, and Nolan Arenado his fourth.

Arenado's four All-Star nods are tied with Dante Bichette and Larry Walker for the second-most in franchise history, and he joined Todd Helton as the only other Rockie to be selected to four consecutive All-Star rosters.

Trevor Story hit a home run in his first career All-Star at-bat, the third All-Star Game home run in Rockies history (also: Matt Holliday in 2008, Todd Helton in 2003).

Bud Black was named to Dave Roberts' All-Star coaching staff, his second coaching appearance in the All-Star Game (also: 2002 as the pitching coach for the Angels).

IN-SEASON AWARDS: Rockies players combined for three NL Player of the Week honors and one Pitcher of the Month honor in 2018.

Nolan Arenado was named Player of the Week for the week ending June 24, the fifth time in his career that he captured the recognition. He slashed .379/.419/.966 with seven runs scored, 11 hits, two doubles, five home runs and 13 RBI over seven games.

Trevor Story, who hit his first walk-off home run to send the Rockies into the All-Star break, was named Player of the Week for the week ending July 15. Story batted .400 (10-for-25) with five runs, three doubles, three home runs, six RBI and one walk and one stolen base over the week. It was Story's third Player of the Week recognition in his career.

David Dahl received his first career Player of the Week nod for the week ending September 30. He batted .333 (10-for-30) with eight runs, one triple, six home runs and 15 RBI. Five of the six home runs were in consecutive games, the fourth Rockies player in franchise history to homer in five consecutive games (last: Nolan Arenado, six games, Sept. 1-5, 2015).

German Márquez won the fourth Pitcher of the Month honor in Rockies franchise history in September (the first since Ubaldo Jiménez for May of 2010). He went 3-1 in September with a 2.14 ERA (33.1 IP, 8 ER), five walks and 48 strikeouts. The 48 strikeouts were the most in September and the third-most ever for any single month in franchise history.

END OF SEASON AWARDS: Nolan Arenado won his sixth consecutive Gold Glove in 2018, becoming the first Rockies player to ever win the award for six consecutive seasons. The six Gold Gloves for Arenado are the most for any one player in franchise history. Arenado is the second player in Major League history (also Ichiro Suzuki) and the first player in National League history to win a Gold Glove in each of their first six seasons in the Major Leagues. He also became the third NL third baseman to ever win six consecutive Gold Gloves, joining Scott Rolen and Mike Schmidt. Additionally, Arenado won his second consecutive Platinum Glove Award for the best fielder in the National League.

LeMahieu earned his second consecutive Gold Glove, the third in his career (also: 2017 and 2014). He is the fifth Rockies player to win at least three Gold Gloves, the first middle infielder to ever do so.

For the second time in franchise history (also: 1996), the Rockies claimed three Silver Slugger Awards. Arenado won his fourth consecutive trophy, while German Márquez and Trevor Story each won their first. Arenado's four Silver Sluggers are tied with Todd Helton (2000-03) for the most in franchise history. Story is the second Rockies shortstop to ever win the award (also: Troy Tulowitzki, 2010-11), while Márquez is also only the second pitcher (Mike Hampton, 2001-02) to ever win a Silver Slugger.

Arenado finished third in National League MVP voting, his highest finish ever and his third consecutive season finishing within the top five. Bud Black was a finalist for National League Manager of The Year.

ATTENDANCE: The Rockies had a home attendance mark of 3,015,880 in 2018, their first time surpassing the three-million mark since 2001. The single-game average was 37,223, a 2% increase over the average attendance in 2017.

The average attendance ranked fifth in the NL, and seventh in MLB.

Note:* Rockies opened their 1999 season at Monterrey, Mexico, with an 8-2 victory over the Padres. Although it was a neutral site, it counted as a road game in the standings. Therefore the Rockies' career road record in the state of California and at Qualcomm Stadium is actually one game less than their all-time road record against the Padres would add up to be.

UBALDO'S NO-NO

On April 17, 2010 at Turner Field, Ubaldo Jiménez pitched the first no-hitter in Rockies history.

- Jiménez's line: 9.0 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 6 BB, 7 SO, 31 batters faced.
- Jiménez threw the first no-hitter in Colorado's 2,703rd game.
- Entering the game, four existing teams in MLB had not thrown a no-hitter: Colorado (est. 1993), Tampa Bay (est. 1998), San Diego (est. 1969) and New York-NL (est. 1962).
- Prior to this no-hitter, the deepest a Colorado pitcher had gone into a potential no-hitter was Jason Jennings, who went 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on Aug. 1, 2002 at Pittsburgh.
- Jiménez threw a career-high 128 pitches, one more than his previous high (127 pitches, June 12, 2009 vs. Seattle); he threw 72 strikes and his fastball averaged 96.8 mph.
- Jiménez faced 31 consecutive batters without allowing a hit.
- When he reached 83 pitches, Jiménez had thrown 42 balls and 41 strikes, but he did not walk any batters after the fifth inning.
- Jiménez is the sixth Dominican player to throw a no-hitter—entering the 2017 season, this is tied with Venezuela for the countries with the most no-hitters other than the U.S.

CYCLES

Rockies Cycles (9)

• Dante Bichette •
June 10, 1998 vs. Texas Rangers (W, 9-8, 10 inn.) - After going hitless in his first two at-bats, Bichette doubled, homered, tripled and hit the game-winning 10th inning RBI single.

• Neifi Perez •
July 25, 1998 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 5-2) - Perez doubled, tripled, singled and then homered on a 0-1 pitch in the seventh inning.

• Todd Helton •
June 19, 1999 vs. Florida Marlins (W, 10-2) - Helton cycled in only four trips to the plate; he doubled, singled, homered and tripled off the right-field wall in the seventh.

• Mike Lansing •
June 18, 2000 vs. Arizona Diamondbacks (W, 19-2) - Lansing's four-inning cycle is believed to be the fastest in Major League history: triple, home run, double, single.

• Troy Tulowitzki •
Aug. 10, 2009 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 11-5) - Tulowitzki hit a home run, single, double and triple to become the first shortstop in MLB history to go 5-for-5 (or better) and have at least seven RBI in same game.

• Carlos González •
July 31, 2010 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 6-5) - González hit a single, triple, double and walk-off home run to become the fourth player to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run.

• Michael Cuddyer •
Aug. 17, 2014 vs. Cincinnati Reds, Game 2 (W, 10-6) - Cuddyer hit a triple, home run, single and double to become the 30th player in MLB history with multiple cycles and the third player in MLB history with a cycle in each league, joining Bob Watson and John Olerud.

• Nolan Arenado •
June 18, 2017 (Father's Day) vs. San Francisco Giants (W, 7-5) - Arenado hit a triple, single, double and walk-off home run to become the fifth player in Major League history to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run. It was the first cycle to be completed with the batter's team trailing in Major League history.

• Charlie Blackmon •
September 30, 2018 vs. Washington Nationals (W, 12-0) - Blackmon led off the game with a triple, then hit a home run, single and double to become the first player in Major League history to cycle in the 162nd game of the season.

Opponents Cycles (9)

• John Mabry •
May 18, 1996 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 9-8) - Mabry was the 15th Cardinal to hit for the cycle and first since 1964 (Ken Boyer) to do it in natural order (single, double, triple, homer).

• Craig Biggio •
April 8, 2002 vs. Houston Astros (L, 4-8) - Biggio became the sixth player in Astros history to hit for the cycle—single, triple, homer, double—and he accomplished the feat in the Rockies' 2002 home opener.

• Fred Lewis •
May 13, 2007 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 2-15) - Lewis hit a double, home run, triple and single to become the fourth player in Major League history to hit his first career home run as part of a cycle.

• Pablo Sandoval •
Sept. 15, 2011 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 5-8) - Sandoval became the 25th player in Giants history to hit for the cycle—homer, single, double, triple—and the fourth Giants third baseman to hit for cycle.

• Scott Hairston •
April 27, 2012 vs. New York Mets (W, 18-9) - This was the 10th cycle in Mets history—single, home run, triple, double—and Hairston's four hits tied his career-high.

• Shin-Soo Choo •
July 21, 2015 vs. Texas Rangers (L, 0-9) - Collecting a career-high tying four hits, Choo hit a double, home run, single and triple for the eighth cycle in Rangers franchise history.

• Matt Kemp •
Aug. 14, 2015 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 5-9) - For the first cycle in Padres history, Kemp recorded his first-ever cycle with a two-run homer in the first inning, a single in the third, a double in the seventh and triple in the ninth.

• Wil Myers •
April. 10, 2017 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 3-5) - The second cycle in Padres history and the first in MLB during the 2017 season, Myers hit a single, double, home run and triple. He had previously fallen a triple short of the cycle seven different times in his career.

• Trea Turner •
April. 25, 2017 vs. Washington Nationals (L, 12-15) - Turner hit his first career cycle and collected a career-high seven RBI in the game, hitting a single, double, home run and triple.

GAME 163, 2007

On Oct. 1, 2007, the Rockies vs. San Diego Padres matchup at Coors Field marked the seventh one-game playoff in Major League history. In the tiebreaker, Colorado took its lead of the game into the sixth inning, battling back from a 5-3 heading into the third inning. With the Rockies leading 6-5 with two outs in the eighth inning, Matt Holliday's miscue in left allowed the Padres to score the tying run, pushing the game into extra innings. It stayed knotted at six until San Diego broke the tie with a Scott Hairston two-run home run off Jorge Julio in the 13th inning. With an 8-6 lead, the Padres called on Trevor Hoffman to try and seal a victory for San Diego. With their backs against the wall and the Rockies' season on the line, Kazuo Matsui led off the bottom half of the frame with a double and then scored on Troy Tulowitzki's two-bagger to bring the Rockies within a run. Holliday followed with a triple, scoring Tulowitzki to tie the game at eight. The Padres chose to intentionally walk Todd Helton in order to face Jamey Carroll with Holliday and the winning run on third. Carroll hit the pitch he saw from Hoffman to right where Brian Giles caught the ball and threw home to try and cut down Holliday. Holliday tagged from third and, diving head into home plate, narrowly beat Giles' throw to win the game, 9-8 in 13 innings, taking them to the postseason.

HUMIDOR

The humidor was implemented at Coors Field in 2002 per MLB's approval and it remains under MLB's management/oversight. The humidor is a temperature and humidity-controlled environment with settings that mirror the distribution warehouse in the Midwest from which the baseballs are shipped to all 30 teams. The humidor keeps the baseballs within MLB for weight and measurement. Chain of custody procedures for the baseballs are maintained by the MLB Authenticator: The MLB Authenticator meets the Umpire's Room Attendant at the humidor, watches him put the baseballs in the ball bag, escorts the attendant with the balls to the Umpires Room and then to the dugout; the Authenticator is positioned in the dugout during the game next to the ball bag.

LOW-RUN GAMES AT COORS FIELD

After no 1-0 games over the park's first 10 years, there have now been 10 1-0 contests at Coors Field since 2005. The first came on July 9, 2005, when the Rockies beat the Padres 1-0. It happened in the 847th regular season game in the facility's history; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 846 total contests without a 1-0 game is the longest span of any park in Major League history. The previous record was 635 games, held by the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association from 1882 to 1891. On Sept. 14, 2008 vs. Los Angeles, the Rockies defeated the Dodgers 1-0 in 10 innings; this game was scoreless through nine innings—a first in Coors Field history. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that game was the first game ever played at either Mile High Stadium or Coors Field that was scoreless at the end of the ninth inning (previously at Coors Field: 0-0 after eight innings on June 11 vs. San Francisco). The Rockies played 1,257 previous games in Colorado in their history, the longest streak of home games without a 0-0 score through nine innings for any team since the Athletics played 1,615 straight home games in which at least one team scored before extra frames; the A's streak lasted more than 20 years (June 22, 1947 through Sept. 3, 1967), spanning the club's relocation from Philadelphia to Kansas City.

Key Dates in Rockies History

1985

Aug. 8 – Baseball's new Basic Agreement permits the National League to expand by two teams.

1987

Oct. 31 – U.S. Senators from eight states, including Colorado Sen. Tim Wirth, create a Congressional task force to investigate baseball expansion.

1989

June 15 – Baseball says it will announce a timetable for NL expansion within 90 days after a new Basic Agreement.

1990

Aug. 14 – Denver-area voters pass a 0.1 percent sales tax to finance construction of a new ballpark, if MLB awards a team.

Aug. 23 – Colorado's Baseball Advisory Committee, headed by Gov. Roy Romer, designates the Colorado Baseball Partnership to spearhead the formation of an ownership group.

Sept. 18 – The NL Expansion Committee hears Denver's presentation.

Dec. 18 – The NL unveils its short list of six potential expansion sites: Buffalo, Denver, Orlando, South Florida, Tampa-St. Petersburg and Washington, D.C.

1991

March 13 – The Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District chooses its site: 20th and Blake.

March 15 – Ownership announces that the proposed park will be named Coors Field.

March 26 – The NL Expansion Committee visits Denver.

June 10 – MLB Commissioner Fay Vincent announces Denver and South Florida are the NL's selections for expansion.

July 5 – Major League owners unanimously approve Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises. Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the team will be called the Colorado Rockies and unveils the team logo.

Sept. – Bob Gebhard is named the first general manager.

1992

Feb. 14 – KOA-Radio (850 AM) signs a five-year contract, becoming the flagship station.

March 2 – Ownership chooses Tucson, Ariz., as the Rockies' Spring Training home.

April 16 – KWGN-TV (Channel 2) signs a five-year agreement to become the Rockies' exclusive over-the-air television station.

June 16 – Bend, Ore., hosts the first game in organization history, a Single-A Northwest League contest between the Bend Rockies and Boise Hawks. With the Rockies trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the eighth, catcher Will Scalzitti hits a grand slam to give his club a dramatic 6-4 win.

Oct. 7 – Coors Field hosts a postseason game for the first time since Oct. 12, 2009. The Rockies fall to the Brewers 6-0 and lose the NLDS 3-0.

History of Baseball in Denver

Although Major League Baseball did not arrive until 1993, professional baseball in the Rocky Mountain Region can be traced back to 1886 with the advent of the Western League. The Denver Bears were crowned the first league champions and baseball in the Mile High City would go on to become an off-and-on occurrence over the next 60 years, with the game becoming a permanent fixture in 1948.

Built in 1948, Mile High Stadium was known as Bears Stadium until 1969. Denver finally became a Triple-A city in 1955, when the American League's Philadelphia A's moved to Kansas City, thus allowing the Bears' owners, the Howsam family, the opportunity to purchase the then-homeless New York Yankees' Minor League affiliate for $90,000. The Yankees tabbed an untried Ralph Houk to manage the Triple-A club and were led by the likes of Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and Ralph Terry. The first Triple-A champions in Denver history were the 1960 Bears, piloted by Charlie Metro.

When the Broncos became a charter member of the American Football League in 1959, the south stands (8,100 seats) and portable east stands (9,616 seats) were added to give a capacity of 34,657 for football. The Broncos began play in 1960.

From 1963-68, the Bears were a member of the Pacific Coast League. The 1968 entry was the affiliate of the Minnesota Twins, managed by the fiery Billy Martin and led by Graig Nettles and Bob Oliver.

After Denver voters turned down a stadium bond issue to build an all-purpose metropolitan stadium in 1967, a non-profit group began a fund-raising drive with the goal of purchasing the stadium for the city. In February 1968, the group bought the stadium from Rocky Mountain Empire Sports for $1.8 million and presented it to the city. A 16,000-seat upper deck was immediately constructed over the west stands, raising the capacity to over 50,000. In December 1968, the stadium was renamed Denver Mile High Stadium. Further expansion of Mile High began in 1975 and was completed in 1977. Voters passed a $25 million bond issue in 1974 to expand the stadium from its capacity of 51,706 to 75,100. The construction of 60 Penthouse Suites atop the west stands brought the stadium to its final capacity of 76,098 in 1986.

The Bears moved to the American Association in 1969, which would stand as the home of all of the remaining Denver franchises until 1992. From 1970-83, the Bears established themselves as a championship franchise, winning five league crowns and three division titles. Graced by future big league stars such as Tim Wallach and Tim Raines, the Bears drew record crowds night after night, including a 1982 Fireworks Night crowd of 65,666, which established a Minor League record.

Under new ownership, the Zephyrs came to Denver in 1985, as an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. The likes of Eric Davis, Paul O'Neill and Barry Larkin displayed their talents in Denver before moving on to prominent big league careers.

The Z's joined the Milwaukee Brewers chain in 1987 and remained a Brewers affiliate until 1992. One of the most memorable moments in the Zephyrs' tenure at Mile High was a 582-foot home run by Joey Meyer into the upper deck of the east stands. One seat in the all-blue section was painted orange to signify Meyer's towering blast. John Jaha later sent one near Meyer's homer, just a few feet to the left. Gary Sheffield and Greg Vaughn were some of the other fan favorites of the more recent Zephyr clubs.

Mile High Stadium on Opening Day, April 9, 1993

When Major League owners unanimously approved Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises on July 5, 1991, not only did that date mark the birth of the Rockies but also the end of over 100 years of Minor League baseball in Denver.

A Major League record crowd of 80,227 packed Mile High for the first home game in Rockies franchise history, April 9, 1993 vs. Montreal. Eric Young hit a home run to lead off the bottom of the first inning as the Rockies cruised to an 11-4 victory, signifying the beginning of big league baseball in the Rocky Mountain region.

After drawing 4,483,350 in the 1993 inaugural season, the Rockies were on pace to shatter that mark in 1994, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840, if it were not for the strike that ended the 1994 season in August. In those first two seasons at Mile High, the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball; 21 times the crowd eclipsed 70,000.

The Rockies moved into Coors Field in 1995 after shattering nearly every attendance mark in the books. In 135 dates at Mile High, the Rockies drew 7,701,861 fans, an average of 57,051 per game.

Demolition of Mile High was completed in March 2002. On Aug. 29, 2006, the Rockies and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of SABR unveiled a plaque commemorating Bears/Mile High Stadium, and a home plate made of steel was placed on the exact location of home plate at Mile High, which is currently in a parking lot adjacent to the Broncos' new home.

2007: 21 WINS IN 22 GAMES

The 2007 season was a historical one for the Colorado Rockies, as the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series for the first time in franchise history.

The Rockies captivated fans throughout baseball with an unprecedented run at the end of the season, winning 14 of their final 15 regular season games (including a one-game playoff for the Wild Card), sweeping the National League Division Series vs. the Phillies and the Championship Series vs. the Diamondbacks. All told, the club won 21 of 22 games heading into the 2007 World Series before being swept in four games by the Boston Red Sox.

Resiliency might be the best word to describe the 2007 Colorado Rockies. The club overcame an 18-27 start to the season, a 1-9 road trip at the end of June and the loss of three starting pitchers. The Rockies went from last place in the National League West to posting the league's best record after May 22 with a mark of 72-46 (.610), including a franchise-record 20 victories in September. The team finished at 17 games above .500, easily a franchise-best for any point in any season. The club's 90 wins matched Arizona for the most victories of any National League team in '07. 2007 became the first 90-win season in Rockies franchise history.

The sensational 21-of-22 run began on Sept. 16. Entering that day's game, the Rockies found themselves four-and-a-half games behind Wild Card leader San Diego, and they trailed both Philadelphia and Los Angeles by 3.0 games each. Colorado was also in the midst of a three-game losing streak, but the Rockies avoided a sweep, hitting four home runs (one of which was Todd Helton's 300th career home run) and collecting 20 hits to defeat the Marlins 13-0.

Following an off day, the Rockies hosted the Dodgers for four games, beginning with a doubleheader on Sept. 18. Colorado won game one by a 3-1 count as Jeff Francis struck out a career-best 10 batters, the most by a Rockies pitcher since 2003. In the nightcap, Helton hit one of the most memorable home runs in franchise history: a 418-foot two-run walk-off home run off Takashi Saito to give the Rockies a 9-8 victory and completing the doubleheader sweep. The win pushed Colorado to seven games above .500 for just the second time in '07. The Rockies defeated the Dodgers 6-5 in the third game of the set, as Brad Hawpe hit a two-run homer in the eighth inning, and the following day, Matt Holliday highlighted a six-run second inning with his 11th home run in 12 games in the Rockies' 9-4 win.

The club then traveled to Southern California for a six-game trip against San Diego and Los Angeles. In the first game of a three-game series with the Padres, the Rockies led 1-0 entering the ninth inning, but that lead vanished as Manny Corpas allowed a solo home run to Adrian González to lead off the frame. However, Brad Hawpe's home run in the 14th inning gave the Rockies a 2-1 victory, securing the club's first winning season since 2000. The Rockies went on to sweep San Diego, highlighted by a franchise-best 17th win of the season for starter Jeff Francis. The sweep notched the Rockies' 84th win of the year, setting the single-season team record.

The Rockies then traveled up the coast to play the Dodgers in three night games. In the opener, on Sept. 25, Troy Tulowitzki homered in the sixth inning to drive in the tying and go-ahead runs while Helton recorded a pair of run-scoring singles to give the Rockies their ninth consecutive victory, tying a franchise record. The following night, Josh Fogg held the Dodgers scoreless, allowing just five hits over 6.2 innings and the Rockies scored two runs in the third inning in their 2-0 shutout victory against Los Angeles. In the final road game of the season, Colorado extended its winning streak to 11 games with a 10-4 win in L.A. on Sept. 27. The club had reeled off a perfect 6-0 road trip, the first unbeaten, multi-city trip in franchise history.

Now it came down to the final weekend of the regular season as Colorado hosted first-place Arizona for three games at Coors Field. The Rockies and NL East co-leaders Philadelphia and New York all sat 1.0 game behind NL Wild Card leader San Diego (Colorado also trailed Arizona by 2.0 games in the division).

In front of 48,190 fans, the Rockies' 11-game winning streak was quickly snapped by Arizona as staff ace Brandon Webb held the Rockies to just two runs in seven innings and dealt the Rockies' and Jeff Francis a 4-2 Rockies loss. The Rockies now had to win its two remaining games and hope for the Padres to lose against the Brewers in their last two games to have a shot at the postseason by guaranteeing a tiebreaker game between the clubs to be held at Coors Field.

With their playoff hopes hanging in the balance, the Rockies' resiliency came into play. First, on Sept. 29, Tulowitzki hit his first career grand slam, Holliday drove in two runs with a double, and Garrett Atkins plated two runs as the Rockies defeated the D-backs 11-1. Meanwhile, in Milwaukee, the Padres were one strike away from a victory that would have ended Colorado's season, but closer Trevor Hoffman allowed a game-tying triple to Tony Gwynn Jr., and the Padres fell to the Brewers in extra innings. Colorado's playoffs hopes were still alive. The Rockies headed into the final day of the season needing a win and a Padres loss to force a tie in the NL Wild Card standings.

On the season's final day, the Rockies scored three times against NL West Champion Arizona in the eighth inning, snapping a 1-1 tie, just as the Padres' final score was posted on the Coors Field out-of-town scoreboard to the roaring applause of 46,375 Rockies fans. Ahead 4-1 going into the ninth inning, the Rockies' Corpas entered the game with a chance to close out the victory and extend the Rockies' season. Corpas gave up a couple hits, a Conor Jackson sacrifice fly and a two-out RBI single from Alberto Callaspo, before fielding Stephen Drew's infield grounder and firing it to first, where Todd Helton caught it and erupted in jubilation.

The Rockies had won 13 of their last 14 games to force the Wild Card tiebreaker on Oct. 1: Rockies vs. Padres at Coors Field. It marked the seventh one-game playoff in Major League history.

In the tiebreaker, Colorado took its first lead of the game in the sixth inning, battling back from a 5-3 deficit heading into the third inning. With the Rockies leading 6-5 with two outs in the eighth inning, Holliday's miscue in left field allowed the Padres to score the tying run, pushing the game into extra innings. It stayed knotted at six until San Diego broke the tie with a Scott Hairston two-run home run off Jorge Julio in the 13th inning. With an 8-6 lead, the Padres called on Trevor Hoffman to try and seal a victory for San Diego.

Backs against the wall and their season on the line, Kazuo Matsui led off the bottom half of the frame with a double and immediately scored on Tulowitki's two-bagger to bring the Rockies within a run. Holliday followed with a first-pitch triple, scoring Tulowitzki to tie the game at eight. The Padres chose to intentionally walk Helton in order to face Jamey Carroll with Holliday and the winning run on third. Carroll hit the first pitch he saw from Hoffman to right field, where Giles caught the ball and threw home to try and cut down Holliday. Holliday tagged from third and, diving head first into home plate, narrowly beat Giles' throw to win the game, 9-8 in 13 innings.

The Rockies were going to the postseason in dramatic fashion, and for just the second time in franchise history.

The Rockies would go on to sweep the Philadelphia Phillies in the NL Division Series in three games, and then sweep the Arizona Diamondbacks in the NLCS in four games, capping the 21-of-22 run and becoming National League Champions. Despite losing the World Series title to the Boston Red Sox, this 2007 Rockies season was certainly a magical run for the ages.

2019 MEDIA POLICIES

WORKING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season and daily credentials are issued with the intention that they will be utilized by the working media in order to provide coverage of the Colorado Rockies at Coors Field. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation's editor, producer or director. It is the responsibility of the requesting affiliation to confirm story assignment and subsequent approval/ denial of access to the game in question. The Colorado Rockies credential websites and blogs on a case-by-case basis. Media affiliates wishing to apply for credentials for the 2019 season must do so through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system at credentials.mlb.com. Please contact Abby Sanders (abby.sanders@rockies.com) with any credential issues and/or questions.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Season and daily photo credentials are issued only to photographers on assignment for legitimate news-gathering organizations and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests must follow the procedure outlined above. The Colorado Rockies do not credential freelancers or any photographers without a specific assignment as outlined by an affiliate's editor, producer or director. All flash photography is prohibited at Coors Field. Please be advised that priority in all photo bays will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. All mono and tripods are permitted pregame or postgame on the field, but not during the game. Any use of photographs taken other than for news-gathering purposes or MLB officially licensed products will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

As an opportunity to change photo bay locations mid-game, credentialed photographers are permitted to move along the warning track behind home plate between the first and third-base photo bays at the conclusion of the second, fourth and sixth innings. Photographers are prohibited from stopping and photographing while changing photo bays. Permission to shoot from behind home plate, via the Infinity Club, in the first inning will be granted based on available space and priority. Still photographers wishing to gain access to the clubhouse must receive advance clearance from the Rockies Communications Department. Digital photography, without permission from the Rockies Communications Department, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times.

INTERNET MEDIA

Only licensees of Major League Baseball Enterprises have exclusive rights to simulate accounts, descriptions or pitch-by-pitch reproductions of Major League Baseball games on the Internet. No transmission by any other media, specifically including the Internet and any other online network, of any information about the game, including (but not limited to) any account, description, picture, video, audio, reproduction or other information concerning any MLB game will be permitted to originate from inside the ballpark (including from a camera feed already positioned within the ballpark). Reproduction of such accounts without a license from Major League Baseball Enterprises is a violation of the policies of MLB and the Colorado Rockies. A breach in such policy will result in revocation of credentials, and may be subject to litigation. The Colorado Rockies credential websites and blogs on a case-by-case basis.

WORKING PRESS BOX

Seating in the lower press box is prioritized by daily print media, visiting media relations departments, visiting beat writers, and area radio and television representatives not on the air during games. The upper press box consists of two television booths and four radio booths for live broadcasts. Keeping with MLB and club policy, no person under 18 is permitted into the press box on game days. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the working press boxes (upper and lower) prior to and during the game. The press boxes are equipped with wireless Internet capabilities.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Members of the media must have a specific working purpose to gain admittance to the clubhouse. Per Major League Baseball Regular Season Club/Media Regulations, "visitors in the clubhouse, including accredited media members, should conduct themselves in a professional manner. Clubhouses are work places. Clubhouse business should be conducted as expeditiously as possible with a minimum of disruption of regular game routines. Members of the media should not excessively linger in the clubhouse when not interviewing players." Should any media member need access to a specific player or staff member, please contact a member of the Rockies Communications Department. There shall be no seeking of autographs and no touching or removing of equipment or personal items from lockers. Media should not sit on clubhouse furniture, read newspapers or magazines or sample players' food spreads.

SOCIAL MEDIA

In accordance with MLB Regular Season Club/Media Regulations, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, texting devices or similar portable equipment in the clubhouse dressing area at any time, whether they are being used to make personal calls, send emails, texting, or scrolling the internet and/or social media, including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, etc. Media are allowed to use cellular devices to record audio and video interviews. Still photography, without permission from the Rockies Communications Department, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times with the exception of a photograph of the posted game lineups. Additionally, under club rules, the use of social media in the dugout, interview room or in the clubhouse while conducting media interviews or during scheduled interview sessions is strictly prohibited.

PREGAME SCHEDULE

The Rockies clubhouse opens a minimum of 3 1/2 hours prior to the game, pending first pitch time, and closes at the beginning of batting practice. The clubhouse will reopen approximately 10 minutes after the game. Clubhouse times are as follows (subject to change):

| First Pitch | Clubhouse Times |
|---|---|
| 1:10 p.m. | Opens at 10 a.m. until start of BP |
| 2:10 p.m. | Opens at 11:00 a.m. until start of BP |
| 6:10 p.m. | Opens at 2:10 p.m. until start of BP |
| 6:40 p.m. | Opens at 2:40 p.m. until start of BP |
| 7:10 p.m. | Opens at 3:40 p.m. until start of BP |

Access to the visiting Coors Field clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

MANAGER BUD BLACK AVAILABILITY

Rockies Manager Bud Black will be available to the media before and after each game, in addition to special requests. His pregame briefing is held in the dugout at the start of stretch, prior to batting practice, both on the road and at home; this will be 2-3 hours prior to first pitch. At home, Black's postgame press conference is held approximately 10 minutes after the game in the interview room (Rox Room), located on the Lower Level, down the first-base line from the Rockies' home clubhouse entrance. On the road, Black is available in the visiting manager's office inside the visiting clubhouse.

RADIO INTERVIEWS

The use of cellular phones for radio interviews while on the field and in the clubhouse is strictly prohibited without being prearranged with the Rockies Communications Department.

FIELD ACCESS

All members of the media with credentials allowing them access onto the field may conduct interviews at specific times prior to the start of the game. There is no field access from behind home plate. Members of the media with home clubhouse access may reach the dugout and field via the steps leading to the home dugout when the clubhouse is open. However, when the Rockies clubhouse is closed, all media should enter and exit the field via the tunnel adjacent to the visiting dugout. The field must be cleared 50 minutes before the beginning of the game. At no time are media permitted in fair territory or anywhere down the line from the first or third base bags. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the field at all times. Members of the media are prohibited from standing, photographing or conducting interviews from the circle of dirt surrounding the cage while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS

Affiliations not licensed by MLB, and non-rights holders of the Colorado Rockies and MLB (television, radio and Internet sites) are prohibited from providing live telecasts, radio broadcasts, game simulations, pitch-by-pitch accounts, as well as from using live or taped material originating from inside the ballpark during a period commencing with AT&T SportsNet going on the air pregame and ending with the conclusion of the game. Additionally, live transmissions will not be permitted until the conclusion of the club's rights holder's (radio or television) postgame programming. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports are permitted to give inning or half-inning score updates; however, at no time can they file reports while play is in progress.

LIVE IN-GAME RADIO REPORTS

No radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from a ballpark hosting a game in which Major League Baseball's national radio rights holder, ESPN Radio, is broadcasting. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game, or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. In addition, in order to protect the Club's local rights holders, the following guidelines are recommended for all non ESPN Radio games: Reports are defined as non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game-in-progress updates and postgame summaries. No entity other than club and national rights holders are permitted to broadcast play-by-play at any time. Reports must be limited to segments of 30-60 seconds each and must be confined to between innings only. Reports will be limited to six per game. Radio stringers must notify clubs of their plans to do live reports from the ballpark and confirm an approved location. The suggested sequence per media outlet is as follows: Scene Set / 2nd Inning / 4th Inning / 6th Inning / 8th Inning / Postgame summary.

ROVING CAMERAS

Any camera light in the seating area of the ballpark is strictly prohibited. If a photo light comes on during the game, umpires will stop play. Still photographers must shoot from either one of the photo bays (first and third base lines). With prior approval from the Rockies Communications Department, still photographers may shoot from the TV camera wells located in the outfield along the baselines and along the upper deck, space permitting. Interviews are not permitted in the ballpark during the game unless approved by the Rockies Communications Department. If approved, interviews may only be conducted on the concourse between innings, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

MEDIA DINING

A media dining room is located adjacent to the working press box on the Lower Press level of Coors Field, and is available to credentialed members of the media who have access to the working press box. Meals are $12.

AUTOGRAPHS

Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Officials will revoke credentials from violators immediately with no exceptions.

Jack Corrigan

Radio Announcer - KOA

With more than 2,600 Rockies broadcasts under his belt, Jack Corrigan is excited about his 17th season in Denver and his 34th in Major League Baseball. Corrigan came to Colorado after 17 years in the Cleveland Indians television booth. In addition to his work in baseball, Corrigan has been involved with play-by-play and color commentary for the Cleveland Cavaliers telecasts in the NBA and spent more than fifteen years as the lead announcer for college football and basketball games for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Ivy League, Mid-American Conference and Patriot League among others.

A native Clevelander, Jack is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and Cornell University, where he played football for four seasons while earning a B.A. in History. He received a master's degree in Communications from Kent State University, and his thesis—on NFL Films—is in the archives at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is involved with his own video company that has produced more than 75 projects for sports entities and other commercial and non-profit organizations.

In the summer of 2005, Jack published his first novel, Warning Track, a book about an aging baseball player dealing with the lure and repercussions of supplement use. His second novel is titled Night of Destiny: 24 December 1944. It is a fictionalized account of an incident in World War II that involved his late father, Judge John V. Corrigan. Hit and Run, a sequel to Warning Track, is awaiting publication while being considered as a movie or television series.

Jack and his wife, Lisa, have been married 42 years and they have two children. Megan, a graduate of Mercyhurst University, and her husband John live in Colorado with their sons, James and Daniel. Michael, a Loyola Marymount University graduate, and his husband Eric work in Chicago where he is in charge of publicity and branding for The Tie Bar Company. Jack, a prostate cancer survivor, is active with the Prostate Cancer Foundation and other local groups in increasing awareness and raising funds for research. He is on the Board of Directors for Boys Hope/Girls Hope, a privately funded, non-profit, organization that helps at-risk children. Jack has served as a volunteer assistant football coach at Regis Jesuit High School in Denver for more than 10 years after filling a similar position in Cleveland at Saint Ignatius High School for 20 seasons.

Jerry Schemmel

Radio Announcer - KOA

Jerry Schemmel will begin his 10th season as one of the radio voices of the Colorado Rockies.

Schemmel's voice has been heard in the Denver market prominently over the past two decades. He served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Denver Nuggets for 18 seasons, as well the radio voice of Colorado State football and basketball during the 2009-10 season. His sportscasting career spans nearly 30 years and includes radio and television play-by-play of several professional and major college sports. He also spent one year as deputy commissioner and legal counsel for the Continental Basketball Association.

Schemmel is a survivor of the crash of United Flight 232 in Sioux City, Iowa on July 19, 1989. The crash killed 112 of the 296 on board. He is the author of the book Chosen To Live, which chronicles the crash of flight 232 and its subsequent effects on his life. The book has been featured in such publications as Reader's Digest, Hoop Magazine, Sports Spectrum and Guideposts. In 2009, he published a second book, The Extravagant Gift. Schemmel has been a guest on several national television programs, including "Regis & Kathy Lee," "48 Hours," "CBS This Morning," "Turning Point," "Biography Channel," "National Geographic TV," "The Today Show," "The Hour of Power," "Good Morning America" and "The Oprah Winfrey Show." His story has also been aired as an extended feature on ESPN and ESPN SportsCenter.

In June of 2015, Schemmel completed the Race Across America bicycle race as part of a two-person relay team. He and partner Brad Cooper won the overall Two-Person Relay Division, covering 3,000 miles in just over seven days. The effort was a fundraiser for the construction of an orphanage in Haiti. In 2016, he was part of four-person relay that set a record for the Colorado Crossing, a 468-mile race that covers the state of Colorado from west to east. Last summer, Schemmel set the 50-plus age group record in the same race as a solo rider, finishing in 33 hours and five minutes. The effort was also a fundraiser for a veterans charity, Paws For Purple Hearts.

Schemmel spent 2009 as the head baseball coach at Metro State College of Denver, after being a volunteer assistant at the school for two years. He also served as the radio voice of the Billings Mustangs, a Minor League affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds, and as a TV play-by-play announcer for the Colorado Springs Sky Sox.

Schemmel earned a law degree in 1985 from Washburn University, after receiving his undergraduate degree from the school in 1982. He also played baseball at Washburn and later was an assistant coach at the school for three years. Schemmel grew up in Madison, S.D., and now resides in Littleton, Colo., with his wife Diane, daughter Maggie and son Ryan.

Drew Goodman

Play-by-Play Announcer - AT&T SportsNet

Drew Goodman, one of the most versatile broadcasters in sports, is in his 18th year calling Colorado Rockies games.

For ten years (1994-2004), Goodman was the TV play-by-play announcer for Denver Nuggets telecasts and from 2002-04, he was one of a few broadcasters to regularly call action for telecasts of two professional teams in the same year, annually logging more than 190 games between the Rockies and Nuggets. Prior to becoming the Rockies TV play-by-play voice in 2002, he worked select MLB national games for FSN and FX, and hosted the "Rockies Pregame Report" and "Rockies Weekly."

His work in football has been extensive, including stints calling the NFL for both NBC and FOX. He has called college football and basketball for FOX Sports NET, FX, ESPN, PAC 12 Network and AT&T SportsNet over the last thirty years and continues those duties at the conclusion of the baseball season. His work has not been limited to just the major sports, as he has covered everything from the ATP Tour to track and field to World Cup skiing. Between 2012 and 2014, he co-hosted one of the top-rated radio shows in Denver for 104.3 The Fan, and currently hosts the "Charlie Blackmon Show" for the station. He is a 13-time winner of Colorado Sportscaster of the Year as voted by his peers in the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters, and additionally has won several Emmy awards for his work. In the spring of 2019, his book If the Walls Could Talk-Colorado Rockies came out, detailing stories from many Rockies players, managers and front office people in Goodman's two decades around the club.

A native of New York, Goodman received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College in 1985. He and his wife Kristi's most important endeavor is raising their three baseball players, Jacob, Zachary and Gabriel.

Jeff Huson

Color Analyst - AT&T SportsNet

In 2006, Jeff Huson embarked on a new career in baseball, serving as television analyst for the Colorado Rockies. When not working in the booth, Huson's insights about the game are a welcome contribution during the Rockies pregame and postgame shows on the network.

The former University of Wyoming baseball star played 15 years in professional baseball, 12 years as a utility player with the Montreal Expos, Texas Rangers, Baltimore Orioles, Milwaukee Brewers, Seattle Mariners, Anaheim Angels and Chicago Cubs. He also served as a roving infield instructor with the Chicago Cubs organization, working with Major League prospects from the Triple-A level to the Dominican Republic League from 2001 to 2005.

He played shortstop at Wyoming 1984-85, after transferring from Glendale (Ariz.) Community College. In 2015, Huson was officially inducted into the University of Wyoming Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2017, Jeff was also inducted into the Glendale Community College Hall of Fame.

A native of Sedona, Ariz., Huson and his family have resided in Parker, Colo., for the past 22 years. Jeff and his wife Wendy are both graduates of the University of Wyoming and have three children: Lindsay, Kyle and Cody. They welcomed their first grandchild in March of 2016, a granddaughter named Tatum, and welcomed their second granddaughter, Parker, in December 2018.

Ryan Spilborghs

Color Analyst - AT&T SportsNet

Ryan Spilborghs joined the ROOT SPORTS team in 2014. As a former National League Champion with the Rockies in 2007, Spilborghs provides a unique perspective on the broadcasts. He will see additional time in the booth this season, serving as game analyst alongside play-by-play man Drew Goodman for select games.

Spilborghs also serves as a part-time co-host on MLB Network Radio, and has served as emcee at numerous charity events in the Denver area.

A Santa Barbara, Calif. native, Spilborghs was recruited to play baseball at the University of California - Santa Barbara, where he was a two-time Big West selection. After being selected in the seventh round of the 2002 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Colorado Rockies, he spent six seasons as an outfielder for the team, doing his part to advance the 2007 and 2009 Rockies teams to the postseason. One of his most notable achievements came against the Giants in late August of 2009, when he hit the first walk-off grand slam in Rockies team history. Spilborghs lives in Denver with his wife Stacey and their children, Kierra and Tatum.

Jenny Cavnar

Host/Reporter - AT&T SportsNet

Jenny Cavnar is the host of the Rockies Pregame Report and Toyota Postgame Show and also serves as sideline reporter and play-by-play for select games. This year marks the four-time Emmy® Award winner's 13th season covering MLB.

Cavnar made baseball history in 2018 as the first woman to do play-by-play for a Major League Baseball game in 25 years. In 2015, she was the first female to provide analysis for a series of National League games in the radio booth.

Born and raised in Aurora, Colo., Cavnar returned home to join AT&T SportsNet, after spending eight years on the west coast lending her talents to ESPN, Fox Sports West, CBS College Sports and as the host of the San Diego Padres pregame and postgame shows (2007-2011).

Cavnar is a graduate of Smoky Hill High School and Colorado State University. Her love of baseball comes from her father, Steve Cavnar, a Colorado High School Baseball Hall of Fame coach. Cavnar resides in Denver with her husband Steven and their one-year old son, Vincent.

Taylor McGregor

Host/Reporter - AT&T SportsNet

Taylor McGregor enters her second season as the sideline reporter for AT&T SportsNet. Prior to covering the MLB, McGregor made stops in Arkansas and Wyoming, covering everything from SEC football to high school soccer.

Originally from Golden, Colo., McGregor graduated from Golden High School before attending the University of Arkansas, where she earned her bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.

Her ties to the Rockies organization run deep as she is the daughter of the team's late president, Keli McGregor. Taylor currently resides in Denver, Colo.

Cory Sullivan

Host - AT&T SportsNet

Cory Sullivan joined the AT&T SportsNet team in 2014 and serves as the Pregame and Toyota Postgame analyst throughout the season.

Sullivan was drafted in the seventh round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft by the Colorado Rockies and played seven Major League seasons with the Rockies, Mets and Astros, while also spending time in the Dodgers and Phillies organizations. Sullivan made his Major League debut on April 4, 2005, and was a member of the 2007 National League Champion Rockies.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Sullivan graduated from North Allegheny High School before attending Wake Forest University, where he graduated with a degree in psychology and political science. In 2011, he won the Arnold Palmer Award at Wake Forest for the male athlete of the year. Cory and his wife Jaclyn McFadyen reside in Evergreen, Colo., with their daughter Riley Sullivan.

Salvador Hernandez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 AM/96.1 FM

Salvador Hernandez was born in Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico. He has 33 years of experience working in media, mostly broadcasting baseball and basketball games. In 2005, he broadcast the Caribbean Series for 25 radio stations in Chihuahua, Mexico. Hernandez has been doing the play-by-play for the Colorado Rockies for the past six seasons, and in 2015, he earned the Award of Excellence in sports coverage. In 2016, Hernandez received a Certificate of Merit, an award given by the Colorado Broadcasters Association.

Hernandez started playing baseball at the age of five, mainly as a pitcher and first baseman. Later, he combined the practice of the sport with the broadcasting.

Currently, Hernandez is the general manager of KNRV 1150 AM/96.1 FM in Denver, a post he has held for the last seven years. He is also a sports columnist for several newspapers in the Denver metro area. Salvador has a son, Sebastian, who is now a baseball player for his high school team.

Carlos Valdez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 AM/96.1 FM

Carlos Valdez was born and raised in Mexico City and moved to the United States when he was 22 years old. Upon moving to the United States, he began working in the restaurant industry, and by 1989, he had opened his own bakery in the San Fernando Valley, Calif.

Valdez played baseball for two years and then decided to be a spectator of the sport, while earning some income as he was hired by a local newspaper in California to take notes on local teams.

He left California and came to Colorado in 2000. For more than seven years, Valdez has been cohost of "Jueves Deportivo," a weekly sports show broadcast on KNRV. He continued with his bakery business here in Colorado, and today, he and his family enjoy serving the Aurora community with fresh Mexican bread.

Hector Salazar

Color Analyst- 1150 AM/96.1 FM

Hector Salazar was born in Morelos, Mexico, and has lived in Colorado since 2008. He attended the Carlos Septien School of Journalism in Mexico and graduated in 1991.

Salazar worked for several newspapers, magazines and Mexican government agencies prior to moving to Colorado. In 2008, he started the talk-show "Palabras" for KNRV, which has become one of the best afternoon shows in the Denver-Boulder market. In 2016, "Palabras" earned the Certificate of Merit, given by the Colorado Broadcasters Association.

Salazar is also the cohost of "Jueves Deportivo," which is a radio sports show that has been on air every Thursday afternoon for the last eight years.

INAUGURAL SALT RIVER FIELDS ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Colorado Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community set the all-time Major League Baseball Spring Training attendance record by drawing 359,308 fans to Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in its inaugural season in 2011. Peoria Sports Complex held the previous MLB record for a two-team facility when the Seattle Mariners and San Diego Padres drew 230,146 fans in 2008.

Overall, the D-backs and Rockies sold out 21 of 33 games at Salt River Fields in 2011, including a stretch of 10 consecutive sellouts from March 12-20. The D-backs and Rockies also had the top two attendance averages in the Cactus League in 2011. Following the 2011 season, BallparkDigest.com named Salt River Fields at Talking Stick its Ballpark of the Year.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Rockies in the Community

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation

Since the organization's inception in 1993, the Colorado Rockies have demonstrated a passionate commitment to their philanthropic mission of positively impacting the community through corporate investment and active outreach. The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is the charitable arm of the organization tasked with the mission to support underprivileged and at-risk youth through programs for youth baseball and softball, education, literacy, drug and alcohol-abuse awareness and prevention.

Since 1993, the CRBC Foundation has granted over $30 million to agencies, organizations and programs that support the foundation's mission. In addition, the Rockies take pride in hosting members of the community at Coors Field, having donated close to two million tickets to numerous non-profit organizations throughout the region.

50/50 Raffle

Beginning Opening Day 2018 and running at all Rockies home games throughout the season, the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation hosted the Metropolitan State University of Denver's Alumni Association in their 50/50 Raffle. This program is the newest addition to the Colorado Rockies community initiatives and it will continue for the 2019 season, by popular demand. During each Rockies home game, volunteers sell 50/50 raffle tickets throughout Coors Field, through the seventh inning. The winning ticket is drawn during the eighth inning and one lucky fan goes home with half of the jackpot for that game.

Rockies Youth Baseball Initiatives

The Colorado Rockies Youth Baseball Initiative encompasses a wide range of programs designed to inspire and cultivate a love of baseball among local youth. These programs place an emphasis on health and activity through baseball, and give opportunities for children to work with and learn from professional Rockies coaches and players. Programs that are under the initiative cater to a wide range of ages, socio-economic circumstances and physical abilities. Some of these programs have sprung from long-standing local relationships.

In 2007, the Rockies adopted the Boys & Girls Clubs Owen Branch, located in West Denver, and have since played host to club members at annual baseball skills clinics and other events. In 2018, over 120 participants ages 8-13 from Boys & Girls clubs attended a basic skills clinic, where they engaged with Rockies players and coaches at various skills stations.

The Rockies have also partnered with Colorado-based National Sports Center for the Disabled for over 10 years, and in that time have provided interactive baseball-themed experiences to young children and teens with disabilities. More than 150 participants took part in the clinic in 2018, which focused on adapted baseball skills stations run by Rockies staff volunteers.

And since 2001, the Rockies have hosted High School Baseball Games at Coors Field in March and April. For participating schools, these games provide a lucrative fundraising opportunity through ticket sales that has averaged $25,000-$35,000, which has been used to benefit their school's athletic program, facilities, equipment or whatever they choose. In 2018, the Rockies hosted 14 games at Coors Field.

RBI Program

The Rockies are proud participants in Major League Baseball's RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Program. Established in 1989, RBI's mission is to assist financially disadvantaged families and communities in engaging youth in physical and mental activity by offering them an opportunity to play in summer baseball and softball leagues at no cost to their families.

The Rockies run a total of 39 teams within three divisions: seniors (ages 16-18) and juniors (ages 13-15) baseball, and softball (18 and under). In 2018, the program touched 20 area schools in Aurora, Commerce City, Denver, Lakewood and Thornton. The season runs from late May through mid-July and culminates with a final tournament. The Greater Denver RBI Program has over 600 participants each year.

Colorado Rockies "Make an Impact" Program

The "Make an Impact" program is a character education initiative that complements preexisting PBS (Positive Behavior Support) programs by holding an on-site "Rockies School Rally." This school-wide assembly is designed to entertain students while teaching them the importance of staying in school, refusing drugs and getting involved within their own communities. The 45-minute interactive program is designed for grades K-6 and features recorded player messages as well as a visit from Rockies mascot Dinger. Since 2006, the Make an Impact assembly program has been presented at over 340 schools and has reached close to 155,000 students.

Coors Field Tours

The Rockies offer year-round guided tours of Coors Field, giving fans the chance to see what occurs behind the scenes at one of the premier venues in all of American sports. Over 16,000 people took a tour of Coors Field in 2018, raising over $100,000 for the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation.

The Care & Share Program

The Care & Share Program is an initiative that gives children living with serious illnesses the opportunity to be special guests at Coors Field prior to and during a Rockies home game. Participants in the program are invited to spend time on the field during batting practice, where they are able to meet and receive autographs from Rockies players. Participants are selected through a collaboration with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Children's Hospital Colorado.

Rockies Wives

Each season, many wives and girlfriends of Rockies players give back to the Colorado community by supporting and participating in various fundraising and awareness programs, as proud representatives of the Rockies organization.

Coors Field Hall of History

Located on the Club Level behind home plate at Coors Field, the Hall of History examines moments and milestones in the history of the Colorado Rockies through a series of artifacts on display for fans to peruse during their ballpark visit. The Hall of History is accessible on game days to fans with Club or Suite Level tickets, and to patrons of Coors Field tours.

In 2018 several new items were added to the collection celebrating classic and historic moments from the season, such as Charlie Blackmon's cycle, German Marquez's immaculate inning, Adam Ottavino's strikeout record, Trevor Story's MLB leading 505' home run, the return of Rockies legend Matt Holliday, clinching a second consecutive playoff berth and Tony Wolters' game winning RBI against the Chicago Cubs in the Wild Card game. Items from these moments will be displayed throughout the season, along with artifacts from throughout Rockies history and the 2019 campaign.

CRBC Foundation at Spring Training

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is committed to community outreach throughout the year in the Rocky Mountain Region, and that commitment extends to their home away from home during the spring. With the move to the spectacular Salt River Fields at Talking Stick complex in 2011, the Rockies have the unique opportunity to collaborate with the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community on several projects with organizations that directly contribute to the quality of life for all people in the community.

Of particular interest to the Rockies are projects that allow baseball to positively impact the lives of children who are at risk. Efforts to prevent substance abuse, increase literacy and educational achievement and promote good citizenship among community youth are crucial to the Rockies' charitable mission.

With that interest as a guide, the Rockies have hosted and participated in several Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community events. Each year since they relocated to Scottsdale, the Rockies have brought their "Make an Impact" school program to Salt River Elementary School. This character education program is designed to teach the students that staying in school, refusing drugs, getting involved and being respectful are traits that will lead to a positively impactful life. In addition, Rockies players have attended a Community Senior Breakfast, where they have signed autographs, taken photos and enjoyed conversations with many of the senior members of the community. The club has also sponsored an equipment drive during Spring Training to bring baseball equipment to those in need within the community.

The Colorado Rockies are proud to share in the cultural diversity and the rich history, culture and artistic values of the Pima and Maricopa tribes. The organization looks forward to many years of shared experiences and events that can make a difference in the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.

Right-Field Manual Scoreboard: Ball going into the scoreboard, either on the bounce or the fly is given TWO BASES.

A TO Z: FAST FACTS

CAPTAIN'S DECK: Located on the Mezzanine Level (above Sections 201-203), the Captain's Deck has a center-field view of the game from a semi-enclosed party area with a full-service bar, concessions and televisions. The Captain's Deck is available to groups, individuals and walk-ins, subject to availability,

CLUB LEVEL: The Wells Fargo Club Level is the second level of the ballpark, featuring in-seat beverage service in the outdoor seats as well as an interior concourse filled with upgraded bars and food stations along with traditional concessions. The Club Level also houses several cases of Rockies artifacts behind home plate for fans' enjoyment.

INFINITI CLUB: This premium seating area is located directly behind home plate. Ticket holders in this area have a private entrance, access to a private restaurant and lounge and enjoy complimentary dining in both the restaurant and their seats.

KID-FRIENDLY AREAS:

- The Interactive Area is located behind the bullpens on the Main Concourse at Gate A. Fans may purchase game tickets at the kiosk in the area, and skills games include pitching and batting experiences suitable for all ages.
- There are two playgrounds for younger fans: One is located under the center-field Rockpile seating deck, just off the Main Concourse, and is available during all games (as well as prior to games when it isn't reserved for picnics); the other is located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse.
- Buckaroos is a kid-friendly concession stand with size-appropriate portions of ballpark favorites, located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse.
- The best place to meet Dinger, the Rockies' mascot since 1994, is at his daily autograph session, which starts at the top of the third inning and ends by the middle of the fourth inning. It is located on the Main Concourse right below the Rockpile in center field. Dinger's schedule is very busy, so make sure to get in line early for the best chance to meet this lovable purple triceratops.

MOUNTAIN RANCH CLUB: The MRC is a full-service restaurant and bar located in the right-field corner on both the Club and Suite Level, offering premium open-air seating around spacious granite half-moon tables with personal televisions as well as indoor tables and bar space. Tables of two or four are sold on a seasonal basis and may also be available on a limited basis for single-game purchase. Tickets include food and beverage credit in the restaurant and at all concession and novelty locations throughout Coors Field. Guests can access the Mountain Ranch Club via the elevator behind Section 114 then to the private entrance behind Section 214 on the right-field side of the Wells Fargo Club Level.

THE ROCKPILE: The Rockies started the Rockpile seating area at Mile High Stadium in 1993 as an area where kids (age 12 and under) and seniors (age 55 and older) could always buy affordable tickets (some as low as $1), and that tradition has carried on to this day at Coors Field. Located in center field, this bleacher section is sold in advance and, for most games, a limited number of Rockpile tickets are held for sale day of game at the Rockpile Ticket Office next to Gate A (limits apply).

THE ROOFTOP: The Rooftop is a two-tiered 38,000 square foot destination in the outfield upper deck, providing panoramic views of Downtown Denver and the Front Range. The Rooftop is open to all Coors Field guests. Along with premium bar/eateries Coors Light Silver Bullet Bar, Smashburger and Jack Daniel's Terrace Bar, The Rooftop also has numerous televisions, live pregame entertainment and group party areas for rental: Shane Co.bana (40-60 people), Jack Daniel's Terrace Loft (40-60 people), Jack Daniel's Pregame Patio (150-300 people, pregame only). Individual standing room tickets for The Rooftop are available for purchase starting at $16, which includes $6 in concession and/or merchandise credit.

SOUVENIRS: Numerous merchandise outlets are available throughout the ballpark. In addition to nine portable stands, Coors Field offers three merchandise stores. The 7,000-square foot Diamond Dry Goods retail store is located on the first-base side of the Main Concourse. The Diamond Dry Goods Store honors Season Ticket Holder discounts and exchanges, if items were purchased at a Colorado Rockies Dugout Store (non-ballpark locations at Rockies.com/dugoutstores). The Fanatics Store, located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse, offers a full line of Majestic Authentic Collection merchandise for both adults and kids. And an updated Club Level Store is located behind home plate on the Club Level. Finally, the Authentics Kiosk, located on the Main Concourse at Section 147, sells game-used collectibles from each home game, as well as autographed merchandise. All items are authenticated under the auspices of MLB Authentication.

SUITE LEVEL: Located on the third level of Coors Field, there is a wide variety of experiences available on the Suite Level: individual game Party Suites, individual

COORS FIELD SCOREBOARD

In 2018, the Colorado Rockies unveiled a new scoreboard with a uniquely Colorado Rockies shape, as the top of the scoreboard features a mountain cutout reminiscent of the Club's mountain logo. Some fast facts about the scoreboard: it measures 8,369 square feet, 258% larger than the former Coors Field scoreboard; it is equivalent in display size to 784 60-inch televisions and features a total of 6.8 million LEDs.

and package Infield Suites, Season Suites and conference rooms.

SUSTAINABILITY: The Colorado Rockies work hard to help keep Colorado and the environment green and clean. Two ways they do this every game are through recycling and solar panels. In a typical year, the Rockies recycle many used materials, such as batteries, electronics, construction debris, fryer grease, glass, plastics, paper, cardboard, oil, pallets and compost leftover from food, grass clippings and shrubbery. In total, the Rockies have diverted over 316 tons from the landfill in one season alone. Also, in partnership with Xcel Energy, the Rockies installed solar panels on the Rockpile in 2007. These solar panels produce over 14,000 kilowatt hours of energy each year, enough to power the Rockpile board during games.

TOYOTA LAND CRUISER CLUB: This premium seating area is located behind home plate on the Press Level. Ticket holders in this area have a private entrance and access to a lounge with food and bar service.

WARNING TRACK PARTY ROOM: The Warning Track Party Room is located at field level under the out-of-town scoreboard with a unique view from right field. The area may be accessed via the Gate A elevator, and the rental provides a fully catered buffet for groups of 30 to 90 people.
